MURDER AT MOWEAQUA---One Of The Ghastliest Crimes On Record---David J. Atteberry
The Victim

Found In The Road With The Top Of His Head Blown Off---The Neighbors Suspect
Two Sons---No Cause Known---A Chain Of Circumstantial Evidence---The Old Man And His Relations.

Moweaqua and vicinity is stirred up to the highest pitch of excitement by one of the ghastliest and most sickening murders in the history of crime. On Monday afternoon David Atteberry, an old man 70 years of age, and so far as known, without an enemy outside his own family, was driving along a public highway towards his home when he was waylaid and shot, his head being literally blown to pieces by a charge from a shotgun at point blank range.

The report of a murder is always a shock to a community; yet it is seldom indeed that there are not some mitigating circumstances, defense of person or character, or heat of passion. Even avarice, revenge or jealousy are motives and it can be understood how a man under certain circumstances could be brought by these to commit such a crime. In the present instance there does not seem to be one palliating feature. Two of the sons are by neighbors suspected of the crime, and the only reason for it so far as known is that their father was about to take a second wife.

Mr. Atteberry lived four and one-half miles due east of Moweaqua on the road to Prairie Home. He had been in Moweaqua on Monday morning, leaving there about 1 p.m. Instead of driving directly home it is supposed that he visited Mrs. Denton, a widow, living six miles southeast of town. About 4 o'clock he continued his journey towards home and when one mile south and a little east of his residence the crime was committed.

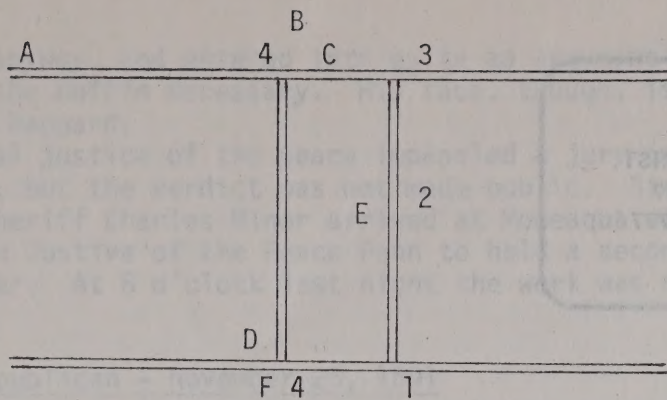

George McClelland lives within a few hundred yards of the point where the shooting occurred and heard the report of the gun. He thought nothing of it and went on watering his horses. He remembers watering two more when he saw a horse running away and he hurried to the place where the shot was heard. Here he found the old man lying on his back dead.

A ghastly hole gaped in the side of the face. Nearly the entire back part of the skull was blown away. The face was stained and powder burned, showing that the muzzle of the weapon was only a few inches away. The horribly ragged wound and the fence splattered with shot proved conclusively that a shot gun was the weapon used to do the killing. Blood and brains marked the distance the body remained in the cart, about 40 feet, before it fell to the ground.

Two tracks, one of a narrow gauge road wagon and the other of the cart in which the victim rode, ran parallel from some distance back up to the point where the shooting was done. There the tracks of the horses in the mud indicated that both vehicles had stopped for some time very near together, the distance between the two inner wheels being just 28 inches. The marks of the hoofs where the horses slipped as they sprang forward at the report of the gun can be plainly seen. This is all that the scene of the murder told and it may be all that will ever be known positively about the crime, but there is not a shadow of a doubt in the minds of the neighbors of the poor old man as to the guilty parties. It is certainly true that there is some very strong circumstantial evidence to justify them in their opinion. It will be remembered that the murdered man lived on the north side of a road running east and west. His son Ed lived a hundred yards or so east of his father's house and on the same farm. West of the Atteberry house was a road running north and south. One mile south this intersects another east and west road. Half a quarter west of this point of intersection is where the murder occurred. Half a mile further east there is another road connecting the two east and west roads mentioned on which lives Beverly Armstrong.

The tracks of the narrow gauge wagon were traced east from the place of the shooting to the second road running north, thence north on this, past the Armstrong residence to the Moweaqua and Prairie Home Road, thence west to the house where Ed Atteberry lives, a somewhat round-about way it will be seen. It is well known that Ed had such a wagon and the gauge by actual measurement exactly corresponds with the track mentioned.

Ed and Grant Atteberry had been seen in the wagon together west of the point where the shooting occurred. A short time after 4 o'clock Billy Armstrong recognized the team passing his father's house, with two men sitting down in the bottom of the wagon bed. He hollered "Hello", and Ed looked up and responded in a like manner. The other did not raise his head.

It is also known by the neighbors that there has for years been much discord in the family and that since the death of the mother and the subsequent visits of the old gentleman to Mrs. Denton, the family bickerings have increased in violence.

Matters became so stormy last Saturday night that the old man ran the two daughters and Grant's wife away from home, and they spent the night at a neighbors. Threats of disinheriting his children are reported of the old gentleman, and the children are said to have threatened him with violence.

There are four children living at or near home. Two daughters unmarried who lived with their father; Ed, who lived on the farm near the old house; and Grant, who a short time ago returned from the West and was living some two or three miles southwest of home. Another son, "Hint", lives in the Fourth ward in this city and a fourth one, Bob, in the neighborhood of Blue Mound.

David Atteberry is reported by his neighbors to have been a quiet man, somewhat peculiar in his ideas, not much given to making friendships, but with no enemies. He owned a farm of 300 acres where he has been living for many years. His farm was not in the best possible condition, though its value and the profits from it have been much increased of late years by thorough tilling. His wife died in February and his prospective marriage with Mrs. Denton was a current topic in the neighborhood. Mrs. Denton has been a widow for two years and is favorably spoken of.

The children have always born fairly good reputations, though some of the boys are accused of general worthlessness. They are of an order of intelligence considerably below the average. Yesterday, Ed went with a neighbor to Moweaqua to buy a coffin for his father. As far as his language indicated he did not manifest much concern anyway, and entered into quite an argument with the neighbor as to the size of the coffin necessary. His face, though, is said to have looked very pale and haggard.

A local justice of the peace impaneled a jury immediately after finding the body, but the verdict was not made public. States Attorney Townsend and Deputy Sheriff Charles Minor arrived at Moweaqua at 1:30 yesterday and took with them Justice of the Peace Penn to hold a second inquest at the scene of the murder. At 8 o'clock last night the work was not completed.

ATTEBERRY MURDER

Suspicion Points To His Sons As The Perpetrators Of The Crime---The Old Man's Family Troubles

David J. Atteberry, a wealthy farmer living near Moweaqua, was shot from ambush and instantly killed Monday evening. He was the father of David Atteberry, of this city, and Robert Atteberry, of Blue Mound. The crime was committed four miles east and one mile south of Moweaqua while the old man was driving home. At the time he was right alongside of his own farm. The fatal shot was fired at 5 o'clock. The cowardly assassin used a shot gun and his aim was true. The charge struck the victim just above the right eye. It must have been fired at close range, for the entire top of his head was blown off. The old man toppled from the road cart and fell in the road while the murderer hastily disappeared. George McClelland, a farmer living about two hundred yards from the place, heard the report and recognized it as a shotgun. Supposing that someone was hunting in his pasture, he started out to make an investigation. Walking along the road he came upon the lifeless form of the old man Atteberry. The body was still warm, but life was extinct. There was no trace of the murderer. The neighborhood was aroused and the foul crime excited the deepest indignation. There is no positive clue by which the guilt can be fixed on anyone, but the family relations of the victim are such that suspicion rests on the sons of the victim, Grant and Edward Atteberry. The former is 30 and the latter 25 years old. The Herald-Dispatch's correspondent at Moweaqua telephoned last evening that the coroner's inquest had not been completed but it was understood that Grant and Edward Atteberry would be arrested before morning.

The dead man was 60 years old and is the owner of about 200 acres of fine farming land. His wife died about a year ago and the common talk about Moweaqua for some time past has been that Mr. Atteberry would soon wed a Mrs. Mary Denton. This caused trouble in the family, his two daughters who lived on the home place and his sons, Grant and Edward, being opposed to the match. One of the sons lived on a part of his father's farm and it was stated that the old man soon intended to rent it. This is supposed to have added to the bitter feeling of the children against the father. It is due to these facts that the breath of suspicion rests on Grant and Edward, there being no other explanation of a motive for the crime. Mr. Atteberry was a man who stood well in the community and had no enemies who would seek to be revenged on him by taking his life. The old man was rather feeble. On the day of the murder he had been in Moweaqua but started home at 2 o'clock. It is believed that he stopped on the road and made a call on Mrs. Denton. It is easy to understand why the match with Mrs. Denton was opposed. She is a woman who does not own any great amount of property and as she stood a much better show of living longer than Atteberry, she would have some day come into possession of most of his property. The motive for the crime could not have been robbery because the old man had but little money with him and that remained in his pockets untouched. David Atteberry, the son who lives in this city, went to Moweaqua yesterday morning to attend the funeral of his father and investigate the killing.

The opinion of those best acquainted with the facts is that Grant is the one that did the actual shooting and that Ed was an accessory to the crime. The chain of circumstantial evidence is an unusually strong one and will doubtless be made still stronger as the details are worked out. The state will probably be able to prove that Ed galloped past the old man on the road just north of Pleak's Corner. The resemblance of the shot in the barrel of the gun not discharged, to those found in the wound will also be shown. It is stated that there is a strong probability that Ed will confess before he has been in jail.

A Decatur gentleman who knows them called on the boys in the jail yesterday afternoon. They were in the corridor with the other prisoners. His conversation was with Ed and they were watched like a hawk by Grant during the 10 minutes that they talked together. He showed no hesitation to talk about the matter and said he was the victim of circumstances, and that everything would be made right.

Public sentiment in Moweaqua and the vicinity of the murder is very bitter against them, but there seems to be no disposition to interfere with the law.

AN UNNATURAL CRIME

Edward and Grant Atteberry Arrested For The Murder Of Their Father!

As predicted in the Herald-Dispatch yesterday morning, Edward and Grant Atteberry were arrested for the murder of their father, David J. Atteberry on Monday evening. The people were not surprised at the action. Those who had acquainted themselves with the facts believed that the arrest of the two men would surely be made, because the evidence at hand was strong against them. The evidence thus far obtained is all circumstantial and unless more is obtained it would probably be hard to convict the men. Both are married and have families. They take their arrest coolly and did not appear to regard it with any surprise. The pair were taken to Shelbyville yesterday morning where they will be placed in jail to await the action of the grand jury. A large crowd was at the depot in Moweaqua to see them start but there was no demonstration and it was not even considered necessary to iron the prisoners. They went along peaceably and quietly. The people feel that one of the two fired the fatal shot that killed their father, but which one did it is only a matter of conjecture. It was learned yesterday that just before the murder was committed Grant Atteberry was seen driving toward the spot in a wagon and Ed was seen in the locality on horseback. Afterwards Grant was seen driving towards his brother's house while Ed was passed by parties on another road. He was riding at a rapid rate. This is considered strong evidence in the chain that is being weaved about the pair. The funeral of the victim took place yesterday at the Long Grove Cemetery in Moweaqua. Rev. Armentrout conducted the services.

MURDER!

David J. Atteberry Murdered In Cold Blood Monday
His Two Sons, Grant and Edward Arrested For The Crime

David J. Atteberry was shot and instantly killed on a Monday afternoon, as he was on his way home. It seems that Mr. Atteberry had been to Moweaqua on Monday afternoon, and in going to his home about five miles east, he went out of his way to visit a lady, Mrs. Nancy Denton, to whom he was paying attentions, and to whom he is said to have been engaged, the wedding to have taken place within a week or so. It was while driving up the north and south land 4-3/4 miles east, a mile south of

YOUTH FOR CHRIST
Post Office Box 117
Ossian, Indiana 46777

the east and west land, that he met his death. Of course, definite and irrefutable evidence as to the guilty parties is not forthcoming as yet, but enough has been established to cause the arrest of two of the murdered man's sons, Grant and Ed, as the guilty ones.

The body was first discovered about 4 o'clock by Mr. Geo. B. McClelland, a farmer, who lives about a mile south of the east and west road, and within 200 yards of the place of the murder. Mr. McClelland heard a gun shot, and paid no particular attention to it until he noticed a horse attached to a road cart, dashing furiously up the road, without a rider. He then started toward the place where the noise of the shot had come from, and soon discovered the body of Mr. Atteberry lying in the road. He hurriedly called assistance, among them being J. M. Housh and T. J. Hammil. M. F. Pleak, Justice of the Peace of Flat Branch Township, in which the body was found, was notified, and a coroner's jury was impannelled and an inquest held at the scene of the murder, before the body was removed, notes and particulars being taken.

The verdict was "killed by unknown parties". After the preliminary inquest, the body was removed to the house, and the sheriff and state's attorney of the county notified. (Shelby County had no coroner since the death last summer of Wm. Sampson, coroner.)

State's Attorney, W. H. Townsend and Deputy Sheriff Tom Minor arrived in Moweaqua at 1:34 Monday afternoon from Shelbyville, and took charge of the case. Previously Supervisor M. H. Miller and others had gone out from town to secure clues and information regarding the case.

The state's attorney and deputy sheriff at once instituted investigations that resulted in the arrest of Grant Atteberry and Ed Atteberry, sons of the deceased as the murderers of their father. Upon their arrival at the Atteberry place, a second coroner's jury was impannelled with M. F. Pleak as coroner, ex-official. Numerous witnesses were examined among them being Geo. B. McClelland who first found the body, J. H., W. F. and Beverly Armstrong, Grant and Ed Atteberry and one of the daughters.

Geo. B. McClelland, a farmer, testified that he lived about 200 yards from the scene of the murder. He testified that about 4 o'clock on Monday afternoon he saw a man driving north seated in a road cart. That he lost sight of him when he came to a point of woods, at the corner south of his house. Very shortly after he lost sight of the rider, he heard a gunshot, and almost immediately the horse with the cart attached, but without a rider, dashed past him, the horses running furiously. No one coming in sight after the horse, he went towards the place from which the noise of the shot came, and on reaching there found the murdered man lying in the road, the brains oozing from a ghastly wound in the top of his head. He called assistance in the persons of J. M. Housh and T. J. Hammil. They found a piece of the skull about 9 feet from the body. The gun had evidently been held within a foot or so of his head, as the skull was cracked and broken in small pieces, only being held together by the skin. Dr. W. P. Buck, of Moweaqua, washed and examined the head and found from a half to three quarters of the load of bird shot in the brains.

The horse attached to the road cart had evidently jumped at the explosion of the gun, and run a short distance before the body fell from the cart, as the hat was found about 36 feet from where the body was lying. It had rained during the day and the ground being watersoaked, the tracks of the road cart and the narrow tread wagon were discovered where they had been standing. The wheels of the two vehicles were within 26 inches. The track of the wagon was followed, it being the only narrow tread wagon in that part of the country, from the scene of the murder, in a round-about way to the residence of Ed Atteberry, a brother of Grant, who owns a narrow tread wagon. The two brothers were seen driving past Beverly Armstrongs, presumably their wagon making the tracks, after the time of the killing.

YOUTH FOR CHRIST

Acting on the evidence produced at the very thorough coroner's inquest, Grant and Ed Atteberry were bound over to the April grand jury, on a charge of murder, with malice aforethought.

Deputy Sheriff Miner took the prisoners to Shelbyville yesterday noon, and they are now behind bars, where they will stay to await the action of the next grand jury.

The fact which will place the accused in a bad light, is that there was bad feeling between the deceased and the accused. They were not pleased with their father's evident intentions to marry again, and there had been several very severe quarrels over the matter. Threats had passed and even if their guilts should not be established, they are in a very unenviable position.

From the officers in charge of the case, we learn that the feeling in that locality is that the guilty parties have been captured, and that they will be able to prove an alibi.

As was stated in yesterday's Review, the state's attorney and deputy sheriff of Shelby County, with a local justice acting in the capacity of coroner, went to the residence of David Atteberry to hold an inquest on the body. They reached the house very late Tuesday afternoon, immediately impaneled a jury and proceeded to business.

The postmortem examination was conducted by Dr. Buck, of Moweaqua. The wound was found about as stated yesterday. The charge entered the face on the right side and emerged at the back of the head. So badly was the skull shattered that the doctor had scarcely commenced to use his scalpel when the entire upper half of the head dropped off. Quite a number of shot were found in the skull.

The witnesses examined verified in the main the chain of circumstantial evidence given in yesterday's REVIEW. The investigation was concluded about 12 o'clock. The verdict of the jury besides the formal statements as to the manner and cause of death recommended the holding of the two sons, Ed and Grant. The two boys demanded a hearing and this was given them at once. In addition to the circumstances mentioned yesterday it was shown that the cart had overtaken the wagon several hundred yards west of the point where the shooting occurred, and had turned out to the left as if to pass. Instead of passing, the two vehicles had traveled side by side up to the place of the murder. It was further proven by the tracks of the horses that both vehicles had made three stops in this distance, the last one being the fatal spot. It would seem that several minutes had been spent at each stop and that the cart had sheered off as if to avoid the wagon.

At the place of the shooting the frightened teams had both started to run, the cart veering to the left and the wagon to the right. The cart horse soon turned back into the road, but still running towards home and following the shorter route. The double team had been quickly checked up and pulled into the road behind the cart as the crossing of the tracks indicated. The wagon took the longer road home. The body remained in the cart until that vehicle turned back into the road, a distance of 36 steps.

The place of shooting, whether chosen by accident or design, was as favorable as could have been selected for the commission of such a deed. It was in a hollow, out of sight of everyone and commanding a view of the roads approaching it for a long distance.

The two brothers were placed on the stand and gave their testimony apparently without reserve. They admitted that they had driven along the road where the body was found at about the time mentioned, but denied having seen their father at any time. They acknowledge that the narrow track wagon was theirs, in fact, there is no other such wagon in that country.

The gist of their testimony is as follows: On Monday morning Ed had gone on horseback to Grant's residence, about six miles southeast of his father's house, to secure his services in shucking corn. After dinner Grant hitched his team to the narrow track wagon. Ed tied his horse on behind and both men got into the wagon and started toward home. After going one mile east and one north, Ed got out and proceeded on his horse a mile east to Pleak's Corner to purchase some tobacco, then going north a mile where he met Grant who had come along the east and north sides of the section. Here Ed again tied his horse behind the wagon and rode with Grant. They continued in company a mile, the mile on which the shooting occurred, separating again at the next corner, Ed taking the shorter and Grant with the wagon the longer route to Ed's house. They remained here until the announcement of their father's death was brought them. In the evening Ed went to Moweaqua to telegraph his brother at Decatur. He did not get back until almost day light.

The gun they say is at Grant's where it has been for some time. They admit taking it out while Ed was there and firing off one barrel, then returning it to the house. Their testimony corresponds with that of other witnesses who saw them at various places during the afternoon and night. The preliminary hearing was finished about 2 o'clock in the morning and the justice decided at once to hold them without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

At the announcement of the decision Grant's wife fell upon her knees and began to pray most piteously. The scene was so affecting that several men left the room and the others looked as if they wanted to be away. She was finally quieted by the threat that otherwise the prisoner would be removed that night.

After breakfast yesterday morning Ed was permitted to go home to bid his wife and children good bye. He directed them what to do about the farm and crops in his absence. Upon his return to the house, at their request he and Grant were shown the corpse of their father. The sight was one to sicken the strongest. The horribly mutilated head, with the surgeon's stitches and the bandages necessary to hold it together, the brains scattered about, and the face with its more than deathly palor could never be forgotten. The two boys burst into a torrent of grief and fell down by the body kissing its hands again and again. After their removal from the room their nonchalant manner returned and no one would have supposed from their manner that they had just been bereft of a father or were charged with a horrible crime. They then bade adieu to their relatives and were driven to Moseaqua and were then taken by rail to Shelbyville where they were lodged in jail.

EVIDENCE ACCUMULATING

Grant Atteberry Now Believed To Have Fired The Shot That Killed His Father

New evidence is accumulating in the Atteberry murder case at Moseaqua, tending to fasten the guilt of the crime on Edward and Grant Atteberry who are in jail at Shelbyville. The latest developments form the strongest link in the chain of evidence which the authorities have been slowly weaving about the two men. After the murder had been committed, Beverly Armstrong saw the two men drive past his house toward the home of Ed Atteberry. No one saw the gun in their possession but it would have been an easy matter for them to have hidden the weapon. The two men were at Ed's house when notified of the fate of the father. What is considered the strongest evidence against the accused is the finding of a shotgun at Grant's house. The two men admitted after being placed in jail that Grant had a gun there and also explained that on the the day of the murder they had fired one barrel at Grant's house for the purpose of trying it. The gun was found concealed and carefully wrapped up in a blanket as if to prevent it being found. Only one barrel was empty. The shot corresponded in size to shot purchased by Grant at Assumption about the time of the murder. It is also said to correspond in size to the shot which the physicians picked from the brain of old man Atteberry. The people in and about Moseaqua are convinced of the guilt of the two men, but the authorities are still gathering evidence and expect to have sufficient to warrant the indictment of the accused at the next meeting of the Shelby County grand jury.

Decatur Daily Review---November 28, 1891

THE ATTEBERRY CRIME

People from Moseaqua say there is a strong probability that Emma Atteberry, the sister of the two boys now in jail, will also be arrested as having been mixed up in the crime. It is generally believed that she knew all about the murder before it was committed. At the inquest she told her brother Ed not to tell any more than was asked him, and to confine his statements to answering questions and nothing else. The shotgun owned by Grant was found at his home, as he said it would be, but it was wrapped in a blanket and hidden between two mattresses. This fact is regarded as suspicious.

THE MURDER AT MOWEAQUA

There have been no new developments of particular importance in the Atteberry murder at Moweaqua but incidents come to light each day pointing to the guilt of Edward and Grant Atteberry who are in jail at Shelbyville charged with the crime. It is learned that a few nights before the murder the old man went to Moweaqua and remained all night. He told friends that he had heard members of his family plotting against him and that he believed him coming to town had saved his life. It is also learned that Grant Atteberry bought shot the day of the murder and only a short time before the deed was committed. He was in a big hurry when he rode up to the store where the purchase was made. As yet there has been no positive evidence that either of the sons fired the shot which killed their father, but the circumstantial evidence is daily growing stronger and the authorities believe they will be able to convict the two men. Their case will come up before the Shelby County grand jury in February.

Daily Republican---December 4, 1891

A. Otta, of the locality of Moweaqua, was here yesterday. He says the case against Grant and Ed Atteberry, charged with the murder of their father, is daily growing stronger and that there may be other arrests before the case comes to trial. He says the fact has been established that the two boys met their father some distance from where the murder was committed and that the tracks in the road show three stops were made before the fatal shot was fired. It is presumed that the two men met their father and had a final argument in trying to dissuade him from his determination to marry a second time.

ED ATTEBERRY GOES CRAZY

People coming from Moweaqua yesterday stated that a message had been received from Shelbyville, bringing the news that Ed Atteberry had become a raving maniac. He was arrested with his brother Grant a week or so ago, charged with the murder of his father. Both were taken to the county jail at Shelbyville and held to await the action of the grand jury. Since then a strong chain of evidence has been accumulating against the brothers.

Decatur Daily Review---December 6, 1891

BELIEF THAT ONE OF THE BOYS WILL MAKE INSANITY A DEFENSE

Word came from Moweaqua yesterday that Ed Atteberry had gone insane in jail at Shelbyville. The information reached Moweaqua yesterday by a telegraph message from Shelbyville. At Moweaqua, where the Atteberrys are known, it is believed that the insanity of Ed is only a dodge to escape punishment for the murder of his father. His neighbors have never seen any indications of insanity, and do not think that the charge of murdering his own father is enough to unseat his mind. They think it would be like the boys to simulate insanity now.

Hon. John R. Eden of Sullivan has been employed as one of the attorneys to defend the Atteberry boys.

E. A. Richardson, a Shelbyville attorney, is another lawyer engaged to assist in the defense. He has already had his fee secured to him by a $1,000 mortgage on the Atteberry farm. The other heirs signed it.

Moweaqua Call-Mail---Thursday, December 10, 1891

Mr. Editor,

There is a mistake in the piece you published on the Atteberry case affair. His coming to the house on the day of his death was for the purpose of hiring my son, Frank, to husk corn. He hired him and Samuel Hill(?) to begin as soon as the weather was good. He told me a few days previous that he was going on a trip and it would take a right smart of money. He stayed long enough to warm and appeared to be in a hurry. We were not engaged to be married. His coming here caused no trouble in my family.

Nancy Denton

(Next column to the above letter is an item about Ed Atteberry not being insane. The brothers were permitted freedom of the corridor of the jail during the day. David Atteberry, a brother, went to visit them and says the report of a fight between Grant and Ed in jail is untrue. Sheriff's duty is to keep them apart and he should do so.

Daily Republican---December 12, 1891

WILL BE DEFENDED BY J. R. EDEN

John R. Eden was over to Shelbyville the first of the week in consultation with the Atteberry brothers, Ed and Grant, who are in jail charged with having killed their father by waylaying him in the roadway and shooting him in the head.

Mr. Eden has been employed to defend them and their trial will probably come off at the next term of court in that county, which is in April.

The wife of Ed Atteberry is a niece of Mr. Eden, who thus has more than an attorney's interest in the case.

Moweaqua Call-Mail---Thursday, March 24, 1892

The prisoners from Shelby County jail were taken to Sullivan and confined in the Moultrie County Jail. Ed Atteberry was among them. The change was made by Shelby County letting a contract for a new jail.

Moweaqua Call-Mail---Thursday, March 31, 1892

Ed Atteberry who has been confined in the Shelbyville jail charged with the murder of his father, David J. Atteberry, was on Saturday last, judged insane and removed to the asylum at Kankakee. Grant Atteberry is still in jail awaiting trial.

Daily Republican---April 29, 1892

The trial of Grant Atteberry, who is charged with the murder of his father, David J. Atteberry, at Moweaqua, came up in the Shelby circuit court a few days ago on a motion to squash the indictment.

The judge overruled the motion and it was virtually agreed by the attorneys that the case should go over to the October term of court.

ATTERBERRY AT BOODY

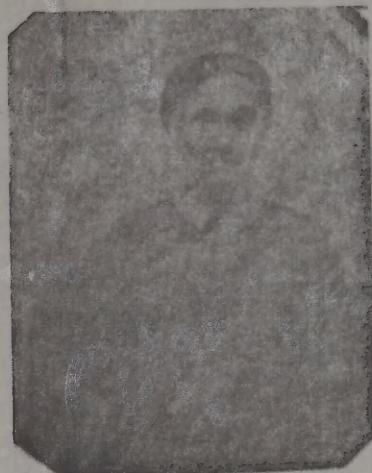

It has been ascertained beyond question, that Ed Atterberry who a few years ago was arrested in Shelby County for the murder of his father, David Atterberry in the public road in Penn township, is now at Boody. He has been there several days. Atterbury it will be remembered, went crazy after his arrest and was sent to the state asylum at Kankakee. He escaped from that institution a short time ago, and brought up at Boody where a brother resided at the time of the tragedy. Efforts will be made to return Atterberry to the insane asylum.

for said lands and that the said Atterbury executed and delivered to said Daniel Tunny
a good and sufficient deed for said lands.
But that said deed was misplaced or lost and never placed upon the records of the County of Wayne. That by reason of the loss of said deed without the same having been re-recorded the chain of title to said lands is imperfect.

Your orator further represents that the said
Daniel Tunny and his Grantors have held and occupied said lands for the past twenty

Re: Naoma Atteberry

The Petition for Deed shows that Naoma, d/o Richard & Eliza, married a Mosser.

I think this is wrong. The Naoma Atteberry who married George Mosser was the d/o Walker and Sarah Atteberry.

Naoma E. - d/o Walker, b. c 1842

Naoma — - d/o Richard, b. 1848/9

Naoma E. joined the Pleasant Grove Church Jan 1858 - same time ^(the Walker) as Eliza A. Atteberry. (The membership lists (2) show her as Naoma E.)

I think that Naoma E. age 16 in 1858, would have been more likely to have been joining the church than Naoma, d/o Richard & Eliza, who would have been at age 10 in 1858.

The 1880 census shows Mahala Mosser, age 18, living with Ben Hardin & Lucetta ~~(George)~~ (Atteberry) Mosser. Mahala, d/o Geo & Naoma (Atteberry) Mosser would have been born c 1862.

Walker's dau Naoma E. would have been age 20 in 1862.

Richard's dau Naoma would have been age 13/14 in 1862.

So, I think all things point toward Walker's daughter Naoma E. as being the one who married a Mosser.

Re: Deeds

The Petition for Dred, showing the heirs of Richard Attibury, is not clearly written.

Allen Attibury, in the deposition, stated that he was not acquainted with all the younger children of his father's land purchase. This inconsistency there, because there are several omissions.

Lucretia Mabee, d/o Walker, was not mentioned. Lucretia is named in a partition with of Walker's heirs.

He (or perhaps the lawyer) was satisfied about Marna who married a Marna. Marna Marna was the d/o of Walker, not of Richard Jr. & Eliza.

Richard d. (Vigilantia) had 2 unnamed children - Rosa, & Eliza M.

The paper shows that Richard & Eliza had a son Walker - Petition for partition - Aug 1866. For Richard's land deed not shown a Walker. The 1866, however for Richard & Eliza does not show a Walker. If they had a son Walker, he was born after 1866 and died before Aug 1866.

August Term

To the Honorable Samuel S. Marshall, Judge of the Circuit Court in and for the county of Wayne and State of Illinois, in Chancery sitting.

Humbly representing sheweth unto your Honor your petitioner William A. Atteberry of said county ~~that~~ heretofore, to wit, on or about the 20th day of December A.D. 1849 at the county aforesaid, your petitioner and Walker Atteberry father of your petitioner, now deceased, entered into a contract in substance as follows viz. Your petitioner agreed to enter in the Land Office at Shawneetown Illinois, in the name and for the use of the said Walker, the following tract of land situate in said county viz: The South West quarter of the North West quarter of Section Nine, Township Three south of Range Eight East. In consideration of which the said Walker agreed to convey to your petitioner the following tract of land situate in said county and then belonging to said Walker viz: The Southwest quarter of the North East quarter of Section Eight in Town Three South of Range Eight East.

Your petitioner would further represent that relying upon said contract, made with said Walker, he proceeded to Shawneetown, and on the 10th day of January in the year 1851 your petitioner entered in the name of said Walker but with the money of your petitioner the land described as aforesaid. That afterwards in compliance with the terms of said contract, your petitioner by the consent of said Walker, took possession of the tract of land agreed to be conveyed to your petitioner as aforesaid, and has ever since retained possession of the same.

Your petitioner would further shew that said Walker Atteberry departed this life about the day of A.D. 1851 leaving a widow Sarah Atteberry and the following children his heirs at law and legal representatives, viz: Richard Atteberry, George Marion Att__, Lucy Jane Atteberry, Christopher Newton Atteberry, Naomi Elizabeth Atteberry, Eliza Ann Atteberry, Lucretia Atteberry and Simeon Rigdon Atteberry, all of whom are minors, and without any legal guardian - that your petitioner has been appointed by the County Court of said county administrator of the estate of said deceased. Your petitioner would further represent unto your Honor, that although he has faithfully complied with the terms of said contract aforesaid, on his part, yet the said Walker entirely failed and neglected to make the conveyance of said land to your Petitioner as by said contract he was bound to do. That the same Sarah, widow of said Walker, has since the death of said Walker conveyed to your Petitioner all the right, title and interest of the said Sarah in and to the said tract agreed to be conveyed to your petitioner as aforesaid.

Wherefore in consideration of the premises your petitioner prays that all of said children may be made defendants ^{here} ~~here~~ that a guardian ad litem may be appointed to litigate and defend for said infant defendants. That said land agreed by said Walker Atteberry to be conveyed to your petitioner be decreed to belong to your petitioner. That a commission ^{be} appointed to make conveyance of the same, and that your Honor grant such other and further relief in the premises as your Petitioner may be entitled to ask or as your Honor may see fit to permit ____ your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray.

BOUGHT BARBER SHOP 91

Loren E. Atteberry, who has been operating a leased barber shop at Midway, last Friday bought the barber shop of Maurice Wilson, in the B. F. Thomas building up town on Main street. He took charge of the business Monday morning. Mr. Wilson expects to leave soon for Colorado for the benefit of his health.

Mr. Atteberry is working in his new shop alone for the present. He expects, however, to add another barber soon.

Dear Editor—Good Time for another Pink Press. Today's Press says last call for letters for 1936 Pink Press. I can not realize another year has passed.

When I was a boy, a year seemed like a long time. Now it seems to pass very quickly, even if you stay home. Wife and I have been home most of the past year, just taking trips in our state of California. It is so large one can take sizeable trips in it alone. However, we plan to do some traveling in 1936. We plan to go to Mazatlan, Mexico in February for a month or six weeks. Mazatlan is about 600 miles south of the border, on the Pacific Ocean—climate tropical.

In May 1936, we plan to return to central U.S. visiting Portland, Evansville, Indianapolis, Cincinnati and a month or six weeks on Lake Tippecanoe in northern Indiana, returning home in Weather about the first of August. Next December, we plan to go by boat to Panama City, Panama, and other Central and South American ports.

"FROG" LEWIS STABBED IN FEUD FLARE UP

Sam Attieberry Seriously Cut
Lewis with Pocket Knife After Lewis Attacked Him

It was a case of one man starting out to kill another and almost getting killed in the effort.

Lawrence "Frog" Lewis is reported in "fair" condition at Memorial hospital Monday (today), where he is recovering from multiple stab wounds inflicted by Sam Attieberry, also of this city.

Stabbed Five Times

Lewis was stabbed five times, once in the stomach, a very deep cut, once in the throat, once in the back and twice under the left arm.

The stabbing took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bud Vaughan, 608 West College, about 6:30 Friday night.

Mr. Vaughan gave the Press this account of the attack, "My wife and I and our daughter, Rosella, (Mrs. Lyman South) were sitting on the front porch after supper talking. Sam came around the house from west and was leaning over the banister talking to me and examining a new pair of trousers I had bought that day. Just then my daughter looked up toward the east (Lewis lives at 602 College) and said, 'There comes Frog and he's got something in his hand.'"

"Then things happened so fast I can't remember what all took place, but Frog walked up and said to Sam 'I'm going to kill you.'"

Continuing with the account, Mrs. Vaughan added, "Frog took a vicious swing at Sam with the short-handled mattock but Sam fended the blow off with his arm. Then holding off the mattock with one hand, Sam got out his knife, opened it with his teeth and started cutting Frog. It was a terrible fight."

"After Frog was cut so badly he sat down on the porch awning . . . blood was literally shooting from his body. We called for help."

"Don't Do It, Sam"

"When I first saw Sam draw his knife I said, 'Sam, don't do it . . . there is too much at stake.' Sam then asked, 'What am I to do . . . let him kill me?' and he started slashing."

City Policeman Harold Jones made a quick run to the house and took Lewis to the hospital. He submitted to surgery an hour later for closing the wound in his stomach.

No charge has been filed against Attieberry, who voluntarily surrendered to police. Lewis may face an attempted murder charge if he recovers, according to police. According to Attieberry, Lewis had made several threats to kill him. About a year ago, Lewis struck Attieberry in the head with a milk bottle in a local grocery store. They had been feuding for nearly three years.

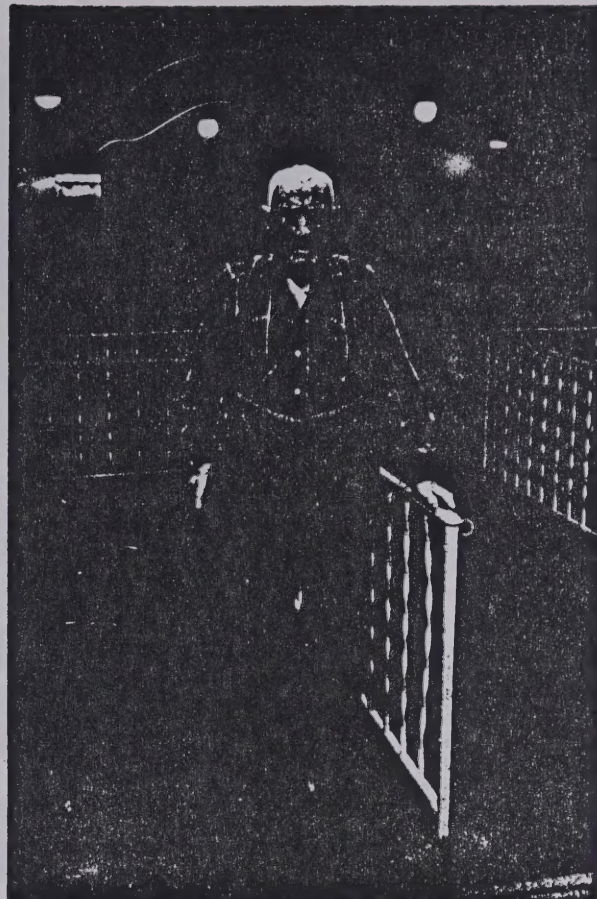

The mattock appeared to have been carefully sharpened for the occasion and some small pieces of wood had been freshly driven in between the head and the handle to keep the head from flying off.

MR. AND MRS. LARRY MCKINNEY

PUNKY ATTEBERRY AND LARRY MCKINNEY WED

Candlelight Ceremony Performed
Sunday Afternoon at First Baptist Church.

The First Baptist church was the scene Sunday afternoon of the wedding of Miss Mary "Punky" Atteberry and Lawrence A. "Larry" McKinney.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Atteberry, of 567 West College Street. She has been employed with the General Telephone Company here for the past 2½ years. The former Miss Atteberry graduated from the Fairfield high school with the class of 1959.

Young McKinney, who is now serving with the U.S. navy, stationed at San Diego, California, is a native of Carmi and a graduate of the Carmi high school with the class of 1957. His mother, Mrs. Edith Smith, also an employee of the General Telephone Company, moved to Fairfield from Carmi about six months ago.

styled with sleeveless bodice, bateau neckline and bouffant skirt complimented with deeper blue cummerbund.

In Groom's Party

Norman Wood, of Carmi, close friend of the groom was best man. The groom and his attendants wore white jackets, black trousers and white flower boutonnieres.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. The table centerpiece was a four tiered white wedding cake decorated in blue and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Wedding cake and punch were served by Mrs. Alex McGee, Miss Mary Jo Brock and Miss June Ivers. Miss Peggy Smith, a sister of the groom, was in charge of the guest register. At the gift table were Miss Rose Garden and Miss Patricia Van Biskirk.

Leaving For California

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will return to Fairfield then leave Thursday of this week to make their home in San Diego, Calif.

Rev. Karr Officiates

Rev. George Karr, pastor of the church, performed the impressive double ring ceremony at three o'clock. Wedding decorations were in a blue and white color scheme.

At the altar were baskets of white and blue Margerite daisies, greenery, and alternating blue and white lighted tapers, in candelabra. Lighting candles for the service were ushers, Sammy and John Pruitt.

Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Hubert Songer, at the organ, played a medley of wedding selections. She also played the traditional wedding marches from Lohengrin and provided accompaniment for the soloist, Mrs. Sammy Pruitt, as she sang, "The Wedding Prayer" and "The Promise Of The Golden Dream."

The Bride's Dress

Given in marriage by her brother, David Atteberry, the bride wore a lovely floor length wedding gown of chantilly lace over tulle. The fitted bodice was designed with long sleeves tapering to bridal points at the wrists, and a high neckline. The bouffant skirt, worn over hoops, was terminated in a short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a small crown adorned with pearls and sequins. The bride carried a white Bible with white roses and daisies tied with satin streamers entwined with rosebuds.

Her sister, Miss Connie Atteberry, served as maid-of-honor. She wore blue silk organza and carried a bouquet of blue and white daisies. Her dress was Walter Atteberry, son of Mrs. Mary Atteberry, is in a critical condition. He woke Monday-morning feeling as well as usual, ate a hearty breakfast and went with his brother-in-law, Frank Terrell, to out corn. He had not worked but a short time until he began to feel dizzy and spoke about it to Frank. In a few minutes he fell, with a hard convulsion and was brought home when medical assistance was called. The Drs. pronounced it poisoning, caused by indigestion. He has never regained consciousness and his death is expected at any moment.

HYLMAN AND RUBY VANWAY

Vanways To Celebrate 60 Years Of Marriage

A well-known Fairfield couple, Hylman and Ruby Vanway, will observe their 60th wedding anniversary on Dec. 21, 1995.

Plans are underway for the couple to celebrate their special day with family and friends at an open house on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 17, from 2-4 p.m. at the Bethel United Methodist Church, west of Fairfield. All relatives and friends are invited. Please omit gifts.

Wed At Ridgway

Hylman Vanway and Ruby Simpson were married Dec. 21, 1935 at Ridgway with Rev. R.W. Robling officiating. Serving as attendants were the late Harold J. and Mildred Brown of Fairfield.

Hylman is the son of the late Percy and Nora Vanway. Ruby's parents are the late Miles and Lulu Simpson, all of rural Wayne County.

The Vanways began housekeeping in Fairfield. In the early years Hylman was employed at Kincaid Hardware for a number of years.

Mound Township before retiring from farming and moving to their home at 1009 Bryan in Fairfield.

The couple have one son, Charles, of Salem, Ind. Their grandchildren are Greta Vanway of Evansville, Ind.; Jill Bottoms of Oakland City, Ind.; and Neal Vanway of near Geff. A special joy for the Vanways was the arrival this year of a new great-granddaughter, Kayla Bottoms, who was born on Hylman's birthday, Jan. 23.

Richard Atteberry of Elm River, spent a very pleasant hour with the editor at this office Saturday. He had a letter from his brother, J. E. Atteberry, of Catherine, Mo., telling of his remembrances. He writes, "I was born in Barnhill Township on the Courtney Harl farm about 6 miles south of Fairfield 68 years ago the 18th of this month. Uncle Joseph Odell lived a quarter of a mile southwest of that place. He died near Boyleston on Big Mound Prairie, near Uncle David Hall's farm. Uncle Joseph Odell has a sister who lives close to me. She is 88 years old. She married John Sanders who lived in old Wayne."

OBITUARY:

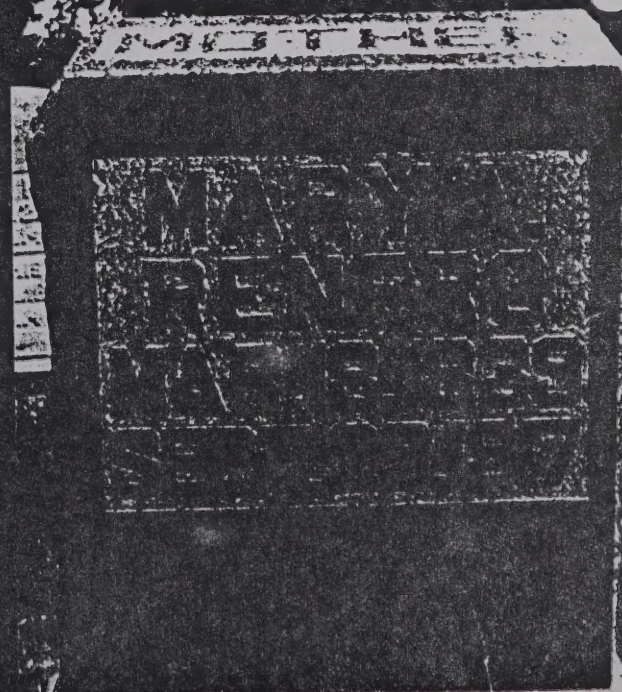

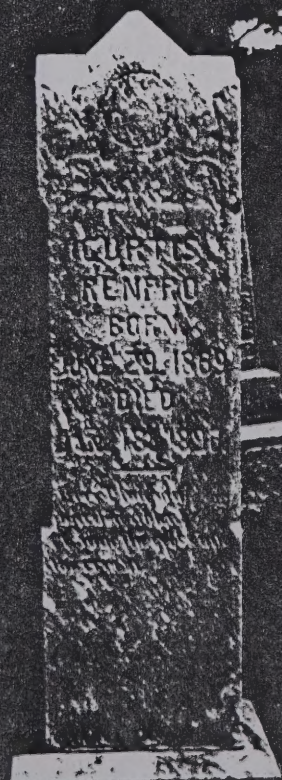

Noah Renfro, son of Amos and Jane Renfro was born near Barnhill, August 29, 1839 and departed this life May 26, 1932 aged 92 years 8 months, 27 days. He spent his entire life in this community. He was united in marriage about 1858 to Emily Woolen. To this union one child was born, Joseph, who still survives. His companion passed away in 1860. He was again united in marriage to Malissa Fowler and to this union 7 children were born, four preceded him in death and the three surviving are Mrs. Jane Wagoner of Bethany, Ill.; Mrs. Flora Chapman of Fairfield, Ill.; and Mrs. Harriett Carter of Barnhill with whom he made his home, his companion having passed away in 1895. He leaves to mourn their loss four children, thirteen grandchildren, 35 great grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends.

He professed faith in Christ in early life, and later was united with Barnhill Missionary Baptist Church as a charter member of the church. He was of strong christian character which has built an influence for good which will reach far into the future. He was a deacon of the church for 50 years or more, always performing his duty in a way that was a credit to the church. He was a kind and loving father and a good neighbor and held in high esteem by all who knew him.

Divorce John W & Mary

August Term 1848

Case #1 Box 10

To the Honorable William Wilson Judge of the Circuit Court in & for the county of Wayne and State of Illinois in Chancery sitting Humily representing sheweth unto your Honor your Petitioner John W. Althorn, a citizen of said Wayne county, that some time in the year 1837, he was joined in marriage to one Mary Hall now Mary Althorn, whom your Petitioner prays may be made defendant to this Bill. That for a long time after said marriage your Petitioner lived with said defendant, treating her in all respects as was his duty to do; but that said defendant disregarding her marriage vows, has, since her said marriage with your Petitioner as aforesaid been guilty of repeated acts of adultery with divers persons, unknown to your Petitioner - That she has wilfully and without any just cause absented herself from the society of your Petitioner - That while thus absent she has associated with negroes, and others, to the great scandal and disgrace of your Petitioner -

Your Petitioner would further shew unto your Honor that he has five children by said defendant, viz: James E. Martha Jane, Richard Franklin, Amos, and Wm. Althorn - all of whom are minors -

Wherefore in consideration of the premises, your Petitioner prays that a summons may issue commanding her &c. That she be compelled to answer all and singular the allegations herein contained. That in the final hearing of this cause your Honor order and decree that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between your Petitioner and said defendant, be dissolved, and that the same be declared to be null and void. And that your Petitioner be allowed to retain the care and custody of his said children - And that your Honor grant such other and further relief in the premises as your Honor may see fit to grant or as your petitioners may be entitled to ask, and your petitioners as in duty bound will ever pray.

Connie Atteberry DeWese Busy In Church; Lost Beautiful Daughter

Amelia, Ohio
Jan. 14, 1986

Dear Editor—It's Pink Press time and the Class of 1961 is to be honored. How neat! We will now get to find out just where many of our classmates are located and what they are doing.

Let me share a little bit about what all has happened since graduation. Upon graduating from high school in 1961, I went to Washington, D.C. to work for the FBI. During the six years I spent in Washington, D.C., I met and married my husband, Dave DeWese, and our first child, April, was born in 1966. Washington, D.C. was an exciting place and we enjoyed the time there but we decided to move closer to family so they could enjoy their granddaughter. So, in November, 1968, my husband changed jobs and we moved to Cincinnati, Ohio. After moving to Cincinnati, our second child, Scott was born in 1969.

Cincinnati, or I should say, Amelia, Ohio, which is approximately 20 miles southeast from downtown Cincinnati, is now our home. At one time this area was more rural but the suburbs are now reaching out to us. We have had many exciting, challenging, heart-warming, and growing experiences since coming to Cincinnati.

CONNIE on her attractive patio in beautiful Ohio.

My husband and I are quite involved in the Lord's work. I have worked with the puppet ministry for over ten years, and as a result of this have been able to take the puppets to the River Downs Racetrack for Bible Schools; to Kings Island Amusement Park (for Baptist Day); to the Enfield, Illinois nursing home; to malls and to other churches. In addition to working with the puppet ministry, my husband and I work with the youth in our church (Clough Pike Baptist Church). For the last few years during the summer I spent one week as youth counselor at Ohio's Baptist Retreat area for youth work.

In addition to our various church activities, we were foster parents for three years. During that period of time we fostered three children, two small girls and one boy. The first child was a one-year old girl that we had for one year. We were given the opportunity to adopt her, but chose not to. Our whole family was enriched by this experience.

Our family has become very fond of the ocean and in the past few years we have spent our summer vacations at the ocean in Nags Head, North Carolina. Of course, this has had an added enjoyment as my sister, Punky McKinney, and her family, who live in Virginia Beach, have joined us during these vacations.

Through the above-mentioned experiences our family has gained many wonderful memories. I now know there was a reason for this because in May, 1984, our 17-year old daughter, April, died in an unexplainable bathtub death. April had just graduated from high school and was going to enter college in the fall when this occurred. She was a beautiful teenager who liked people, and cared about them, loved life, was easy-going, had enjoyed her senior year by excelling in track, attending the senior prom, and participating in the National Art Honor Society. What does a person say when they lose a loved one at such a young age? Well, we feel we were richly blessed with her and that she gave us so much joy and happiness in her short seventeen-year lifetime. Some people don't receive this in a fifty-year lifetime. I could write many things about the circumstances surrounding her death, but the greatest thing to be said is that God has a purpose for all things and He has wrapped His arms around us and carried us through this experience.

Our son, Scott, age 16 (almost 17) is a junior at Amelia High School and keeps us on our toes. There is never a dull moment with him around and we so enjoy him. For the past three years he has been very involved in wrestling and made Varsity Team his freshman year. Wrestling seems to be one of his niches in high school and he does very well with it. He has hope of making it to the state before he graduates. In addition to wrestling, he runs cross country and track. Scott also has an interest in art and has been told he should pursue this as a career. What a way to get pictures in our home—by framing Scott's artwork. Scott has also been a member of the puppet team at church and he is a very animated puppeteer. His plans for the future at this moment in time seem to be the possibili-

SCOTT DEWESE

My husband, Dave, is from Piqua, Ohio (north of Dayton, Ohio), and has worked for Blue Cross/Blue Shield for the past 17 years in the computer programming field. He had previously worked for the FBI for ten years. He is active in the church and serves as a deacon, plus works with me in the Youth Department. He teaches a Sunday School class of seventh graders. His interests include racquetball, shelling on the beach, attending Scott's wrestling matches, and creek walking. He is trying to teach me the game of racquetball (what a job!).

Through the past years I have been able to keep up my typing skills and in February, 1983, I went back to work for the FBI. (I left there in 1966.) I now work in downtown Cincinnati and enjoy the hustle and bustle of the city and all the excitement that goes along with it (like the Cincinnati Reds and Bengals being in town).

April and I played on the church's womens softball team for many years and we were all-stars in 1983. In the winter months Dave and I play on a church co-ed volleyball team.

I still come home to Fairfield to visit my mom, Mary Atteberry, who lives on College Street. It has been fun bringing the kids home and letting them get to know Fairfield as I knew it. They loved sitting on grandma's front porch, listening to the football games in progress at the high school down the street, getting to know the children of parents that I went to school with, and being able to go all over town and find their way back to grandma's house.

I have some great memories of the Dog N Suds where I worked as a carhop during my high school days. Everyone would circle the Dog N Suds to see who all was out for the evening and who was with who. The Dog N Suds is no longer

on Main Street—It is an empty lot now.

I remember biology class and my teacher (I believe her name was Miss Cash), who was quite short but could walk the fastest of any person I knew. She would take us out on field trips to collect all kinds of weeds (?) and we would go tramping through those fields at a speed which even the best runner couldn't keep up with. She always picked the hottest of days with all kinds of dust and pollen flying in the air for these field trips! And to top that off, we had to carry those magazines which were jammed full of smelly weeds. (Everyone had to use magazines to press their weeds in!)

Some other fun things centered around biology class. We had to collect bugs for our bug collections. Well, the best and most fun place to collect bugs was around the flares at the oil wells. I remember driving back some of those small, dirty roads at night seeking the best bugs of the night.

I remember the fun we had when the yearbooks would come in. All the students would go up to the high school and have an "annual signing party". We would sit on the steps, or anywhere that would make it easy for us to collect our thoughts and write something meaningful and earth shattering for our fellow classmates. Wouldn't it be fun to read some of the writings today?

Since I graduated I have not seen nor heard about many of my fellow classmates so I hope there are many others who are writing articles for the "Pink Press" edition. It will be lots of fun to find out more about my classmates and what exciting contributions they are making to life.

Have a great day!

Administrator pay the cost of this application and fees of his administration and that he report his proceedings herein to the Court with which these his executors are concerned And Whereas, in pursuance of said order and decree the said party of the first part, did on the second day of September A D 1865 between the heirs of the said deceased and five others viz the executors of said day and on said premises, exposed to sale by public auction the at bidder, the lands, and real estate so ordered to be sold in said decree, having first given notice of the time, place and place of such sale with a description of said lands and real estate, according to the third and fourth sections of said and decree and of the Statute regulating such sales, as will fully and at large appear by the report of said order, made by a party of the first part as administrator as aforesaid to the said Court by Court

And Whereas at such sale the said party of the second part became the purchaser of the following described lands and real estate being the highest bidder therefor at the foregoing price, that is to say, The sum of Eight Dollars for the said

Utteberry, Courtney Utteberry, Peter Utteberry, and Ediz Utteberry are minor heirs of said deceased and defendants to this Bill. It is therefore ordered that C. B. Boggs be and is hereby appointed Guardian ad litem to litigate and defend for said infant defendants. And the said Guardians having sworn further to further notice entered the appearances, and filed the necessary the said infant defendants, and this cause coming on to be heard upon petition, answer and evidence, and it appearing from the abstract filed herein by the clerk of this Court that there is no insufficiency of assets in the hands of said Administrator to pay the debts of said deceased and no cause having been shown why the prayer of said petition should not be granted. It is therefore, ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the prayer of petition be granted, and that the lands (being the NW 1/4

? Circuit Court
August Term A. D. 1869

Miner Atteberry)
Elizabeth Jane Atteberry) Divorce

To the Honorable James M. Pollock judge of the Circuit Court in and for the County of Wayne and State of Illinois in Chancery sitting Humbly complaining your petitioner Miner Atteberry a citizen of the County of Wayne and State aforesaid represents unto Your Honor that your petitioner Miner Atteberry and Elizabeth Jane Atteberry were joined in the bonds of matrimony on or about the 15th day of January A. D. 1867.

Your petitioner further represents that he was always to her the said Elizabeth Jane Atteberry a good and faithful husband always providing bountifully for all necessary wants furnishing always food and clothing in abundance and that your petitioner performed all the family duties ? ? a faithful and true husband.

Your petitioner further showeth unto your Honor that soon after the joining of your petitioner with her the said Elizabeth Jane Atteberry in the bonds of matrimony she the said Elizabeth Jane Atteberry left your petitioner's bed and board and is yet remaining away and doth refuse to live with and perform the family duties to your petitioner.

Your petitioner further represents that said Elizabeth Jane Atteberry wife of your petitioner aforesaid since her marriage with your petitioner has been guilty of adultery at divers and sundry times.

Therefore in consideration of the premises in as much as your petitioner can have no relief save in this Honorable Court where matters of this kind are alone remediable Your petitioner pray that Elizabeth Jane Atteberry be made party defendant to this bill that the peoples most gracious writ of summons may issue bearing the seal of this Honorable Court commanding her the said defendant to appear plead answer or dismiss to this your petitioner's bill of complaint. And that once final hearing of this Cause your Honor will decree that the bonds of matrimony now existing between your petitioner and Elizabeth Jane Atteberry defendant as aforesaid be forever dissolved and extinguished (?). And that your Honor will grant such other and further relief (The last 2 lines are too dim to read)

Petition filed 3rd August 1869.

Who was this Sarah Ann (Atteberry) Thomason McThompson Courtney, who said she was the d/o John Atteberry and Pollie Hall? The only John Atteberry and Mary "Polly" Hall that I know who would have had a daughter in 1847 is John W., s/o Richard and Patsy.

John filed for divorce from Mary Hall in July 1848. The divorce specifically stated that there were 5 children: James E., Martha Jane, Richard Franklin, Amos and Minor. NO SARAH. Also, in Jonathan Atteberry's estate in 1895 - only James E., Martha J., R. F. and Minor were named among his survivors. NO SARAH. Amos was killed at Vicksburg, Miss. in the Civil War.

The only thing I can think of is that Sarah Ann was born about the time that John W. and his wife were splitting up, and John W. wouldn't acknowledge her. It is hard to tell exactly when Sarah Ann was born - her tombstone shows Jan. 27, 1847, but other dates range from 1839 to 1856.

Sarah Ann may not have known that John W. was not her father, or if she knew, she may have claimed to be John W.'s daughter to save embarrassment. I checked the Halls in the 1860 census and found this:

1860 Wayne Co. Ill.

404/372	Henry Hall	38	Ill.	398/367	Hannah Hall	68	N.C.
	Mary J.	30	"		* Mary	42	Ill & c 1818
	Sarah J.	13	"		George	22	"
	Hannah	11	"		Fanny	12	"
	Charlotte	8	"
	Susen	6	"
	Henry	3	"

* If this was Polly (Hall) Atteberry, where was Sarah Ann?

Sarah J. above appears to be the child of Henry and Mary J. Hall. I think that possibly Mary "Polly" remarried and Sarah Ann was listed in 1860 under the name of the 2nd husband.

This is all just theory, but it may be an explanation for the stray Sarah A. Atteberry that I've wondered about for a long time. Mary above, in the household of Hannah, would have been born c1818. John W. Atteberry was born in 1818. I didn't find Hannah Hall in the 1850 census [but the census was so poor that maybe I didn't recognize her].

Christopher Newton Atteberry, s/o Walker, married a Hannah Hall 31 Aug 1879. The 1900 Hamilton Co. Ill. census shows that Hannah was born Sept. 1852. Hannah, living in the household of Henry Hall, was age 11, [b. 1849]. (The ages were ? close, so she may have been the Hannah who married Christopher N. Atteberry. ?(over))

Maybe this is the Hannah who married Christopher N. - The age is right.

Dear Virginia,

I had a streak of good luck in my Renfro research this past week and thought I'd share with you. A year ago my son's wife lost a baby and they were living in Ashkum, Il. near Clifton. I went up there for a couple of days and went to visit my uncle in Clifton while I was there. He showed me the old family Bible which was Jane Atteberry Renfro Harl's and Courtney Harl's Bible. I copied some of the names and dates and last week he sent copies of the pages.

Copied as written in the Bible:

Courtney Harl was born December the 9th 1813

Jane Harl was born May the 2th 1813

Martha E. Renfrow was born December the 4th 1834

Arlen Renfrow was born January the 11th 1837 (didn't have this name before)

Clara W. Atteberry was my grandmother. My uncle Glen told me that her father was Will Atteberry and his parents were Nathan Atteberry and Martha George. I can't find a family sheet of their children, but it doesn't make sense to me.

I have been in contact with Birdie Atteberry Daum from Bethany, Il. who told me my great-grandmother was a first cousin to her father-in-law David W. Atteberry - ggrandson of Nathan Atteberry.

I'm working on this trying to come up with something. A cousin who is now dead, Carrie Carter Erdman of Flora and daughter of Harriet Renfro Carter told me that her mother told her she was related to Reuben Atteberry.

Let me hear from you. I am again on the research trail!!

Sincerely,

Betty Nance

Harl vs. Harl

Filed 26th November 1867

?. ?. Gash, Clk.

To the Honorable James M. Pollock, Judge of the 12th Judicial Circuit of the State of Illinois embracing the County of Wayne in said State in chancery sitting:

Your petitioner, John T. Hearl, a citizen of said county, would respectfully represent unto your honor that at the _____ term 186_ he was duly appointed a conservator of Courtney Hearl an insane person who is now confined in the Hospital for the insane at Jacksonville, Illinois. Your petitioner would further represent that the personal property of said Courtney Hearl has been exhausted in the payment of his debts and for his support. That the debts now existing against said Courtney Hearl amount to about the sum of three hundred and seventy-six dollars to wit: one note in _____ of Thomas T. Bonham for two hundred and fifty dollars and one hundred and twenty-six dollars due the Treasurer of the Hospital for the insane at Jacksonville. That the amount required for the support of the said Courtney Hearl is about one hundred and fifty or two hundred dollars per year. Your petitioner would further show that said Courtney Hearl is seized in _____ of the following real estate situated in Wayne County, Illinois to wit: the NW 1/4 NW 1/4 Sec. 5 and the NE NE 1/4 Sec. 6 and part of the NW 1/4 NE 1/4 Sec. 6 and the S 1/2 NE 1/4 of Sec. 6 all in Township 3 South Range 8 East. That the following are the names of all the heirs and legal representatives of the said Courtney Hearl to wit: Jane Hearl his wife, Eliza Jane Puckett, Rebecca Cannady, Hannah A. Wilson, John T. Hearl your petitioner, Nancy Hearl and Olive Hearl, the last two of whom are minors.

And in the consideration of the premises your petitioner prays that said Jane Hearl, Eliza Jane Puckett, Rebecca Cannaday, Hannah A. Wilson, Nancy Hearl and Olive Hearl may be made defendants to this bill. That a summons in chancery issue and that they be compelled to answer _____. Your petitioner further _____ upon a final hearing of this court the homestead of said Jane Hearl, wife of said Courtney Hearl, in and the said above described premises may be assigned and set apart to her. That then direct householders be appointed as Commissioners _____ and set apart said homestead. That after the assignment of the homestead of said Jane Hearl the remainder of said lands may be decreed to be sold, the proceeds thereof to be applied in the payment of the just debts of said Courtney Hearl and for his support and maintenance.

And may it please your Honor to grant such other and further relief in the premises as in equity may seem _____ and _____ and your petitioner will ever _____.

11-30-1987

G. 2

Emily A. Sinnett, 96, of Fairfield, died at 2:50 p.m. Friday, November 27, 1987 at Way-Fair Restorium in Fairfield from infirmities of age.

Graveside funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday (today) at Maple Hill Cemetery with Rev. John Reed officiating.

Nale's Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Born Near Enterprise

Mrs. Sinnett was born August 19, 1891 in Elm River Township near Enterprise, the daughter of Lane and Christina (Atteberry) Shelton. She was married to Price B. Sinnett on June 11, 1910 in Fairfield and he preceded her in death on November 21, 1973.

Mr. Sinnett was a plasterer and paper hanger in the Fairfield area.

She was a member of the Fairfield First Christian Church and in earlier years was an employee of the Sexton dress factory.

The Survivors

Among survivors are two sons, Glen and Charles, both of Fairfield; three daughters, Irene Sinnett, Elsie Canull and Alice Service, all of Fairfield; 13

EMILY A. SINNETT

grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; and six great great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, one son, three daughters, seven brothers, three sisters, three grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS

MR. AND MRS. PRICE SINNETT

As they appeared on their wedding day.

PRICE SINNETTS WED FIFTY YEARS

Well-known Fairfield Couple to Have Quiet Family Observance
Next Sunday.

A well-known Fairfield couple, Mr. and Mrs. Price Sinnett, will quietly observe their golden wedding anniversary Sunday at their home at 205 North West Fourth Street.

Four of their five children will be present for a family observance of the anniversary. A son, Charles Arthur, with the Army in Germany, is expected home this month.

Friends Invited

The Sinnetts are not having open house but any of their friends wishing to call are invited. They ask that no gifts be brought.

The couple was married in the home of Rev. J. H. McCord, the Baptist minister, here, on June 11th, 1910. They began housekeeping at the home of his father, Benjamin Sinnett, in Fairfield.

Mrs. Sinnett was the former Emily Shelton, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lane Shelton, of the Enterprise community.

Mr. Sinnett has been a plasterer and paperhanger and in construction work for the past 44 years.

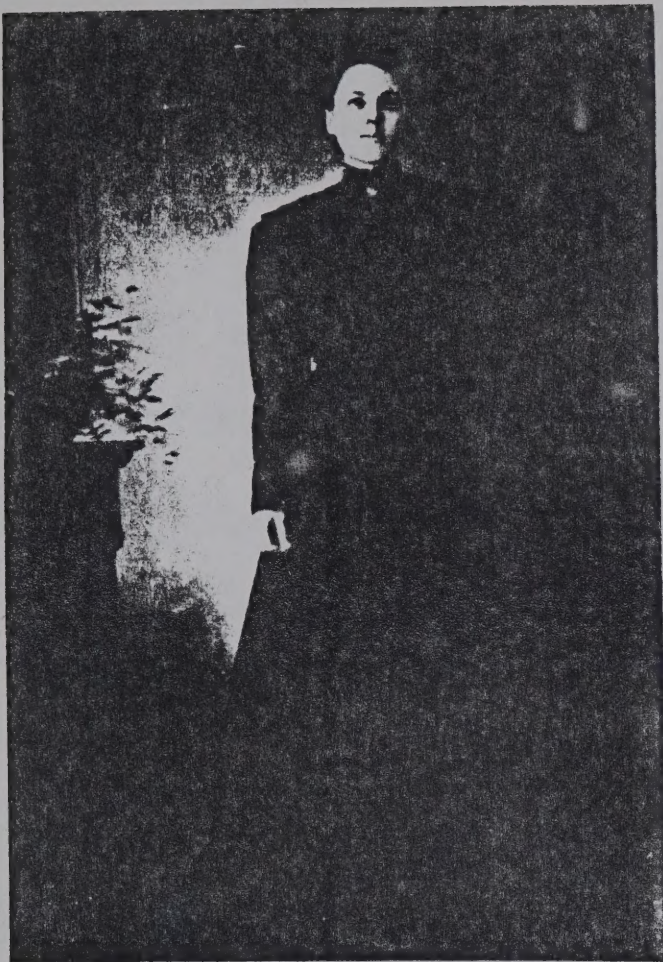

This Sunday will also be his 77th birthday. Mrs. Sinnett is 69. Both enjoy fairly good health for their ages.

Their Children

Their children are Mrs. Alice Service, of St. Charles; Glen, of Fairfield; Elsie, wife of Carl Canull, of Fairfield; Miss Irene, at home, and Charles Arthur, in the armed forces.

Re: Simeon B. Atteberry, s/o Richard and Patsy

The Pleasant Grove Church Minutes come through again.

The 2nd wife of Simeon B. Atteberry was Elizabeth Woolen, sister to Harriet Woolen, who married James Asa Atteberry, s/o Nathan.

I believe the Woolen (Wollen) sisters were children of Levi (Leven) and Mary (Polly) Woolen.

I found a Partition suit involving the heirs of Thomas J. Wollen, who died 3 July 1873. (Case In Court, March Term 1874) He left his mother, brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews as his heirs.

One of his sisters was Elizabeth Atteberry, who was residing out of the state in 1874. It also names nephew Franklin Atteberry, niece Charlotte Atteberry and nephew Nathan Atteberry. They were the children of his deceased sister, Harriet (Wollen) Atteberry.

The sister, Elizabeth (Woolen) Atteberry had me stumped. Finally, I came across Simeon B. with an unidentified wife Elizabeth. I recalled that Simeon B. was in the Pleasant Grove Church Minutes.

Sure enough - p. 41 - Elizabeth Atteberry (Wooling) was dismissed by letter Oct. 1870. I held my breath while I checked Simeon B. Eureka! he was also dismissed Oct. 1870.

p. 28 shows that Bro. Simeon B. Atteberry and Sister Elizabeth Atteberry were granted letters of dismissal Oct. 1870. She was the only Sister Elizabeth Atteberry granted a letter of dismissal in Oct, 1870; therefore she was Elizabeth (Wooling) Atteberry, shown on p. 41.

The DAR likely wouldn't accept it as proof, but I do.

Joseph Ruffro, nephew, was also an heir of Thomas J. Woolen. He was the son of Noah Ruffro and Emily Woolen, sister to Thomas J. Woolen. Noah Ruffro was the son of Amos Ruffro and Jane (Atteberry) Ruffro Hard. obit of Eliza (Woolen) Brandon, sister of Elizabeth (Woolen) Atteberry, shows that she was the d/o Leven and Mary Woolen

Re: Simeon B. Atteberry, s/o Richard and Patsy

The Pleasant Grove Church Minutes come through again.

The 2nd wife of Simeon B. Atteberry was Elizabeth Woolen, sister to Harriet Woolen, who married James Asa Atteberry, s/o Nathan.

I believe the Woolen (Wollen) sisters were children of Levi (Leven) and Mary (Polly) Woolen.

I found a Partition suit involving the heirs of Thomas J. Wollen, who died 3 July 1873. (Case In Court, March Term 1874) He left his mother, brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews as his heirs.

One of his sisters was Elizabeth Atteberry, who was residing out of the state in 1874. It also names nephew Franklin Atteberry, niece Charlotte Atteberry and nephew Nathan Atteberry. They were the children of his deceased sister, Harriet (Wollen) Atteberry.

The sister, Elizabeth (Woolen) Atteberry had me stumped. Finally, I came across Simeon B. with an unidentified wife Elizabeth. I recalled that Simeon B. was in the Pleasant Grove Church Minutes.

Sure enough - p. 41 - Elizabeth Atteberry (Wooling) was dismissed by letter Oct. 1870. I held my breath while I checked Simeon B. Eureka! he was also dismissed Oct. 1870.

p. 28 shows that Bro. Simeon B. Atteberry and Sister Elizabeth Atteberry were granted letters of dismissal Oct. 1870. She was the only Sister Elizabeth Atteberry granted a letter of dismissal in Oct, 1870; therefore she was Elizabeth (Wooling) Atteberry, shown on p. 41.

The DAR likely wouldn't accept it as proof, but I do.

Joseph Renfro, nephew, was also an heir of Thomas J. Woolen. He was the son of Noah Renfro & his 1st wife, Emily Woolen. Noah Renfro was the s/o Amos Renfro and Jane (Atteberry) Renfro Karl.

For Simon E. Atcham, s/o Robert and Mary

The Pleasant Grove Church Minutes come through again.

The son wife of Simon E. Atcham was Elizabeth Woolen, sister to Hester Woolen, who married James Lee Atcham, s/o Robert.

I believe the Woolen (Wolfe) family were children of Levi (Levin) and Mary (Wolfe) Woolen.

I found a partition suit involving the heirs of Thomas J. Wolfe, who died 7 July 1877. (Case in Court, March Term 1877) He left his widow, Elizabeth, sister, niece and nephew as his heirs.

One of his sisters was Elizabeth Atcham, who was residing out of the state in 1877. It also names nephew Thomas Atcham, niece Elizabeth Atcham and nephew Nathan Atcham. They were the children of his deceased sister, Hester (Wolfe) Atcham.

The sister, Elizabeth (Wolfe) Atcham had no spouse. Finally, I now know Simon E. with an undoubted wife Elizabeth. I recalled that Simon E. was in the Pleasant Grove Church Minutes.

One month - 7. 41 - Elizabeth Atcham (Wolfe) was dismissed by Pastor Oct. 1870. I paid my breath while I checked Simon E. (Wolfe)
he was also dismissed Oct. 1870.

P. 28 shows that Mrs. Simon E. Atcham and sister Elizabeth Atcham were granted letters of administration Oct. 1870. She was the only sister.
Elizabeth Atcham granted a letter of administration in Oct. 1870; therefor she was Elizabeth (Wolfe) Atcham, born on p. 61.

The last likely month's except it is given, but I do.

Further copies were also on the 7th of January.
Whether the were the same of which copies I did not know. Only when these copies were the 7th these copies and four (Atcham) copies there

1900 census shows that Sarah (Odell) Attkerry
& D. W. had 10 children - 4 still living
These 4 living children were:

James T. - died 1933

W^m N. - died 1946

Rose - on 1900 census

Melvin - on 1900 census.

So it appears that Joseph, son of D. W., had died before 1900 - (died 10 Nov. 1894)

Since Joseph who died Oct 31, 1903 was buried at Attkerry Cem., I'm inclined to think he may have been Simson R's son - even though he was 33 years old in 1903 - instead of 35 as the death record shows.

The fact that he is buried in Attkerry Cem.
adds weight to the theory that he was Sim's son - he was a grandson of Walker. Also Bertha Balsaver, grand daughter of Sim, said that she thought Sim (Simson R.) was buried in the "family cemetery down by Barnhill"

There may have been another Joseph around who didn't appear in 1870, 1880, or 1900 census that I don't know about. But since he's buried in Attkerry Cem., I feel that he has a connection to Walker's family. David W.'s family were buried mostly at Pleasant Grove.

INTERVIEWS

and FROM THE MAIL BAG

Leo Mason—I was just cranking a Ford last Saturday night, when it "kicked", as they sometimes do. That's why I have a broken arm. I live in Jasper and am a son of the late Ross Mason.

Dr. W. A. Hancock—You might tell our friends, the Press readers, that wife and I are leaving in the Ford coupe early Wednesday morning, Sept. second, for a trip to Colorado, Wyoming, and Nebraska, and "other points west". We might go to Yellowstone Park.

Frank Cunningham—Here are five bushels of apples, some of them weighing a pound and more, and I'd like to have you find some one who knows what kind of apples they are. They are not supposed to be "horse apples." I bought them for something else, but this year when my four trees loaded themselves down to the breaking point they were not what I bought from the nursery agent.

Perry Shannon, Mt. Erie—Wife and I returned Sunday from a visit with my sister, Mrs. Thomas Crews and family, at Eureka Springs, Ark. There is a great contrast between this year and last year in crop conditions in Arkansas. Last year that state was very badly hit with the drough, and there was much suffering, but this year there is plenty of everything.

A. A. Maricle, Beebe, Ark.—Please mark my Subscription up two dollars with as I am enclosing check for that amount. Can't do without your paper and be satisfied as it keeps us posted on everything that takes place around the old home town. We also enjoy reading the Editor's travel stories. Wish we could have a travel story or "Tobe Chipp" letter in each issue of the Press.

DOC BUYS A FARM

You perhaps never would have thought that Dr. Guy Hart would turn his thoughts towards a farm much, and particularly you would not have thought he would have bought himself one. But he is surprising his friends by the announcement that he is now a farm owner. He has closed a contract for the purchase of the two hundred acre farm in south Jasper, once known as the Virgil Goodall farm, and later owned by Sam Goodwin. John Bone is living on the place at present.

Dr. Hart is getting a lot of "kick" out of the new possession already, he says, and while he first had in mind the purchase as a mere investment, he is not so sure but that he may want to just keep it himself, to have a place for an outlet for his surplus energy. He does say that he has no present intention of moving on the farm.

A LITTLE DESCRIPTION

OF LAKE JAMES

(Mrs. Ida McDannel)

I believe that some of the readers of the Press would like to read something about the Lake James Christian Assembly, from which Mrs. Laura Brown and I have just returned, after spending several weeks.

Lake James is situated in extreme northeastern Indiana, some four hundred miles from Fairfield.

Mrs. Laura Brown and I returned from Lake James Christian Assembly Tuesday at noon. We were entertained in the Villa Hotel on the shore of

JUDGE J. V. HEIDINGER IN TWO WRECK

Judge Now Has a Couple of Broken Ribs, When Drunken Driver in Car at Taylorville.

Judge James V. Heidinger was victim of another car accident Thursday evening, which gave him a couple of broken ribs and other bruises up and sent him for treatment to the Taylorville hospital.

The Judge was in two auto accidents on his trip to the state and political round up day last Tuesday at Springfield.

On Wednesday he had accompanied Lex Anderson, of McLeansboro, to capital, in the latter's Ford car. Near Taylorville, a truck pulled them off the pavement and crashed into the concrete abutment of a bridge. The Anderson car was badly smashed, losing a wheel, but found a way, however, to continue the journey.

Thursday afternoon Judge Heidinger's son, James, Junior, accompanied by his cousin John Evans, of Nicholas Camp, drove the new Dodge sedan to Springfield to bring the Judge home. They reached the "out off" in the road section of Taylorville about 7:30 p.m. young James driving, with Murray, a drunken driver, it is charged, crashed into the Heidinger car, striking two other cars in a effort to evade officers who were for him, for having run over and killed a little child, a couple of hours before. Murray had evaded the officers for two hours.

The rear part of the Heidinger car was crushed, and Judge Heidinger sitting in the rear seat was so badly injured he had to be assisted from the car a few minutes residence at the hospital where he gathered his wounds. He said the vehicle hit a pile of brush and an automobile was BADOLLET - The Badollet House at 310 North Washington Street, in Salem is a local landmark. Built in 1854, for Howard and Tabitha Pace Badollet, the home is an example of mid-nineteenth century classical architecture with Italianate ornamentation. Located on its original one acre wooded site, one block northeast of the Marion County Court House, it is the only remaining example of this style of architecture in Salem. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places for architectural significance in December 1990.

The home is rich with history of early settlers and prominent citizens of Salem. Howard Badollet came to Marion County in late 1830s from Ohio. He owned and operated several businesses including a fur and pelt trading post, a dry goods and hardware store and a lumber mill. The profitable lumber mill was a main supplier of railroad ties to the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company during the 1850s to 1880s.

Howard Badollet was born 1824, in Ohio and died Nov. 1, 1866, in Salem. His wife, Tabitha Jane Pace Badollet was born Sept. 3, 1833, in Mt. Vernon, IL, and died July 30, 1880, in Salem. Tabitha was the daughter of George W. Pace, an early settler and developer of Salem. Badollet and his wife, Tabitha, were married in April 11, 1850, in Salem. They built their first house in 1854, on the dirt road known as Washington Street. The home was built in two sections, the front portion of the building is the traditional four-over-four room, central hall design popular during the mid 1800s; the rear portion, or ell, was added one year later and housed the kitchen and servants quarters.

The Badollet's were the parents of five children, three of which survived to adulthood. They were: Antonette Badollet Larimer (1850-1925), George (1855-1870), Edwin (1858-1870), Thaddeus Howard (1862-?), Adeline (1864-1885).

After the death of Howard Badollet ownership of the house passed to Charles Edgar Jennings in 1891. Jennings, a first cousin to William Jennings Bryan, was a prominent attorney and the law partner of Judge Silas Bryan.

In 1915, the house ownership passed to John Wilson and Eva Mae Wells White. White's were also prominent citizens dating back to John's grandfather, Mark Tully, one of the two founders of Salem. Eva's father, Matthew B. Wells, was the sheriff of Marion County from 1898 to 1902. John W. "Button" White's father, John T. White, was owner of a dry goods store, on the corner of South Broadway and McMackin Streets. Button White was a justice of the peace and city tax born

County in 1895, from Macedonia. George Kern was born in Pennsylvania in 1861, to John George and Eliza McCardel Kern. His grandfather, John George Sr. immigrated to Philadelphia from Wurttemberg, Germany in 1840. On Oct. 11, 1882, in Hamilton County, George married Theola Simmons daughter of Matthew and Eliza Smith Simmons. The Simmons and Smith families came to southern Illinois in the 1860s, from Bledsoe County, TN.

George and Theola had seven children: Naomi, Logan, Elza, Walter, Ferdrick, Alfred and Lloyd, George operated a store and post office on the countyline road in Farrington Township, Jefferson County, until his death in 1903. Theola died in 1901.

KINSEY - John Kinsey Sr. was born in Wolverhampton, England, Nov. 15, 1822, died May 18, 1901, in Centralia. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery Centralia.

Emma Gilmore was born Aug. 1, 1924, Northshield, England, died Oct. 15, 1915, Centralia. Buried in Elmwood Cemetery. They were married in England living in Birmingham where their first son, John Kinsey Jr. was born Dec. 3, 1847. (See J. Kinsey Jr.)

John Sr. was a rulemaker, spending seven years as an apprentice. They made carpenter's rules. Like all inventions, machinery was beginning to take place of handwork making him think about coming to America.

They left England spring 1849, on sailing vessel. Taking six weeks to arrive at Jamaica Long Island, NY.

There he had his own cabinetmaking shop for 10 years. He now began to think about going west. Four children were born: Sarah Frances (Oct. 29, 1849 - Feb. 13, 1953), Emma Jane (Aug. 31, 1851 - Feb. 22, 1939), Mary Ann (July 17, 1853 - Aug. 4, 1932) and Thomas (Dec. 20, 1855 - Feb. 10, 1949).

Land was available for homesteaders in Minnesota, 10 years later John Sr. went to Mankato. Sometime later, Emma with family took a train the way of St. Paul.

There were many Indians there, they taught Emma how to tap maple trees for sap to make sugar.

John Sr. taught children of other families during winter.

After living there maybe two winters, they moved to Iowa, staying only a year. In the winter of 1861, they left by covered wagon and oxen, and moved to Davenport, IA, living a year. Then New Years 1862, with covered wagon, ox team, they crossed the frozen Mississippi River and down to Jefferson County, IL. They rented a farm. Their sixth child was born there, Alice Marai, May 30, 1862, died Aug. 30, 1959.

After she was born they moved to Marion County, buying a farm southeast of Centralia. Building a house which is still standing today and moving into this house in 1872. The farm was planted in orchards, strawberries, but later in grain. Submitted by Mrs. Dwight J. Kinsey.

KINSEY - John Kinsey Jr., born Dec. 3, 1847, Biringham, England, died Sept. 3, 1930, from complications of a broken hip cause by falling out of the barn loft while pitching hay to horses.

Was first married Dec. 24, 1879, to Harriet Ella Copple, daughter of John H. and Frances E. Hamlin Copple. She was born Jan. 4, 1854, died Nov. 21, 1883. One son died Nov. 1, 1883.

Second marriage March 18, 1889, Frances Malinda Leffel, daughter of John and Elizabeth Wolf Leffel, born in Springfield, OH, April 17, 1852, died Jan. 17, 1917.

Children: Grace Ethel (Dec. 10, 1889 - May 24, 1978) a school teacher, never married.

Ernest Gilmore (April 21, 1891 - Sept. 17, 1934) a farmer, fruit grower, dairyman, married Conway "Connie" Ruth Hoyt.

Alfred Richardson (Aug. 19, 1893 - Feb. 7, 1944) a farmer married Lola Lagerhren.

John Jr. was only two years old when he came to America with his parents (See John Kinsey Sr.). John Jr. being only 14 years old, he walked most of the way, as the family traveled from Davenport, IA, to Illinois driving the cow.

After he and Frances were married, they lived on a farm south of Centralia and Wamac, where the Centralia Industrial Park is located today.

John Jr. never missed going to church on Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church in Centralia. He always walked to and from church. Submitted by Mrs. Dwight J. Kinsey.

KINSEY - Ernest was born April 21, 1891, the son of John Jr. and Frances Malinda Leffel Kinsey, at home south of Wamac in Marion County. He was a farmer, fruitgrower and dairyman. He served his country during WWI in France. He married Jan. 14, 1925, Conway Ruth "Connie" Hoyt, daughter of John Andrew and Nancy Jane VanDyke Hoyt, born May 5, 1891.

Children: David Hoyt (June 23, 1926 - June 30, 1926); Daune Alfred, born Feb. 9, 1928; and Dwight John, born Feb. 9, 1928.

Ernest was killed in a truck accident Sept. 18, 1934, near Iuka, IL. The truck crashed into concrete bridge abutment. He was thrown from well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who being duly sworn, declares in relation to aforesaid case as follows:

According to his discharge he was mustered out on August 20th 1864 at the expiration of his term of enlistment, while in the army he had the black measles and a running cancer formed on his leg which physicians said must be allowed to take its course and run. When he died he was found to be full of corruption and it was necessary to bury him immediately. When he went into the army he was in sound health and had only been in this country a few months. His disease was undoubtedly contracted while in the army. Was enrolled on July 28-1861

FUNERAL NOTICE.

DIED—At his home west of Kane, Ill., Tuesday,
April 6th, 1909, at 9 o'clock P. M.,

R. A. ATTEBERRY,

AGED 48 YEARS, 2 MONTHS AND 25 DAYS.

Funeral services will be held at the Kane Baptist Church, Thursday, April 8th, 1909, at 2:00 o'clock
P. M., Rev. D. C. Blunt, officiating.

The Modern Woodman Camp will have charge of the services.
Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

Martha - 1/2 sister husband - Rosie Willson

OBITUARY.
Richard Allen Atteberry, was born in Wayne County, Illinois, Jan. 15th, 1860, and departed this life at his home 1 and 3-4 mile west of Kane, April 6, 1909, age 49 years, 2 months and 25 days.

On Nov. 6th, 1887 he was married to Miss Rosy Williams, who with three sons born to this union.
Earl, Roy and Lester survive him.
In this connection, mention is also made of Mrs. Geo. Brown, who was taken into the home of Bro. Atteberry at the age of two years and reared to womanhood.

Two Brothers, J. C. and A.
Atteberry, of Forestburg, Texas,
and Alton, Ill., also two sisters, Mrs. John Shaffer and Mrs. Antoine Schwalb of Cuba, Mo., and Carpenter, Ill., survive him. Bro.
Atteberry was converted and united with the Kane Baptist Church in the month of Feb. 1890.

His latest testimony: "I have made mistakes, yet I trust my Heavenly Father, and believe he owns me as his child.

He was a member of the Modern Woodman of America, and carried $3000 life insurance in that order, was a kind and obliging neighbor,
a hard worker, and by his thrift and industry has left his family in comfortable circumstances.

His funeral was conducted at the Baptist Church last Thursday at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. D.
C. Blunt, assisted by Rev. J. B.
Ravenscroft. The M. W. A.
Lodge had charge of the body and marched into the church in a body, some 50 strong. Interment in the Kane Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to thank all our friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father R. A. Atteberry, also, the members of the M. W. A.
Lodge.

Dear Mary;

Thanks for your letter of May 25, and the information about your Atteberry lineage. We are very pleased about your interest in our mutual family genealogy. And yes, we are the editor, writer, two-fingered typist, printer, and envelope stuffer of the Atterbury Family History Newsletter, but research is my main interest, something I've done all to little of in recent months. Also, we do know Frank and Marge Shamroe, so we were sorry to learn of his health problems. Tell Marge hello, with best of luck to Frank, when you see her again.

Enclosed is a set of the back issues of the Newsletter, and hopefully you will find something of interest in every issue. The Newsletter is sent without charge to any one genuinely interested in our family history. I probably have the largest collection of Atterbury/./Attebery material in the country, thanks to the many people (cousins) with whom I correspond. The next issue of the Newsletter, which we hope to mail in about a week, will have about 100 people on the mailing list, most of whom are researching their Atterbury/./Attebery family line, as you are. (Atterbury /./Attebery is our shorthand method of denoting the more than twenty different ways the family name has been spelled by the descendants of our American progenitor, William Atterbury.) A series of "distractions" has reduced the number of issues published in the last 12 months, but we hope to get going again this year.

It is generally assumed by all family researchers that William Atterbury, the 1733 English Emigrant, married Sarah Mitchell Yaxley about 1740-1742. She had first married Robert Yaxley in 1735, by whom she bore two children, John and Elizabeth. To my knowledge, no formal record of William and Sarah's marriage has been found. Our assumption that this correct is based on the will of John Mitchell, Sarah's father (see the January, 1994 issue of the Newsletter). Neither have I seen or know of any birth records for the presumed nine sons of William and Sarah. A "sketchy" family history compiled by my father and his cousin referred to only seven sons (omitting Richard and Nathan). However, I believe nine to be correct.

1995, '96, and '97 Newsletters will give you some insight into our still incomplete London research. The Newsletter summaries should answer most of your questions about William, the Emigrant's, ancestors. One other comment, the Henry Atterbury who was transported in 1742 is the only other Atterbury "convict" we know of recorded by Peter Coldham.

Voncille Winter and Wilma Mitchell's book, The Descendants of William Atterbury, 1733 English Emigrant, is the most complete history of our family ever compiled. They deserve much credit for their effort, but there are many errors and omissions in the book, which is 560 pages in length. To my knowledge, no copies are available, but it can be found on Microfiche No. 6049268. This is an LDS (Mormon Church) document you can order from and read at any LDS Family History Center. If you have not already been there, I believe the closest to you is at the Church located on Clayton Road near Lindbergh. The LDS Family History Library has, by far, the greatest collection of records for genealogical research in the world, most all of which are available at their individual Family History Centers.

I am glad you located Wayne Atteberry, for he is one of the best Atterbury/..Attebery active researchers. He has been very helpful to me, and his prior London research prompted my interest in searching for the English ancestors of William. You can depend on Wayne to give you good, factual, information.

I have no Web site, but you can reach me by e-mail at jca@ipa.net. Another cousin, Jim Atteberry of Bellevue, Washington, has had an Atteberry Web page (<http://atteberry.home.ml.org>) but he will have a new and improved site July 1, 1998. the new page will be found at <http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Flats/1296>.

Please do not make the assumption of many novice family researchers with computers that one can learn everything about their ancestors on the internet. Possibly in the future, if and when all the records of the LDS, the National and State Archives, the County Court Houses, and the work of thousands of researchers are available "on-line", will a person learn about their heritage in the comfort of their own home. Today, there is much more mis-information to be found on the internet than solid facts. Meanwhile, the best thing you can do today is to have your daughter secure a copy of the genealogy program Family Tree Maker. With this program (the best of 10 to 12 on the market) you can easily organize all of your family information, and also be able to acquire many CD's with genealogical data, as well as CD's with thousands of family trees (including many Atterbury/..Atteberys) submitted by users of this program.

Thanks again for the information you sent. Any questions or comments you may have on material in the Newsletters would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

I have no Web site, but you can reach me by e-mail at Wayne@att.net. Another e-mail, Wayne@att.net, has had an Anthony Web page (<http://att.net/anthony>) but he will have a new and improved site July 1, 1998. The new page will be found at <http://www.genealogy.com/anthony/wayne>.

Please do not make the assumption of many other family researchers with computers that one can learn everything about their ancestors on the internet. Family is the future, it and when all the records of the LDS, the National and State Archives, the County Court House, and the work of thousands of researchers are available "on-line", with a person learn about their lineage in the context of their own home. Today, there is much more information to be found on the internet than with any other source. The best thing you can do today is to have your computer access a copy of the genealogy program FamilyTreeMaker. With this program (the best of 10 in 15 on the market) you can easily organize all of your family information, and also be able to produce many CD's with genealogical data, as well as CD's with thousands of family trees (including many Anthony's) submitted by users of this program.

I thank you for the information you sent. Any questions or comments you may have on material in the Newsletter would be appreciated.

Sincerely,

d/o Richard & Eliza (Close)

ATTEBERRY GENEALOGY

William Atteberry was born in 1742 in the town of Newbury, Massachusetts. He was the son of John Atteberry and Mary (Wheeler) Atteberry. He was educated in the common schools of his native town and in the Newbury Academy.

He was married to Sarah (Wheeler) Atteberry in 1765. They had several children, including John, William, and Mary. He was a member of the Newbury Congregational Church and served as a deacon.

He was a member of the Newbury Militia and served in the Revolutionary War. He was a farmer and a merchant.

He died in 1825 in the town of Newbury, Massachusetts. He was buried in the Newbury Burial Ground. His wife Sarah died in 1835 and was buried in the same place.

Notes taken from "The Descendants of William Atterbury" 1733 English Immigrant by Vancille Attebery Winter

William was born in England ca.1700-1710. He was deported to America from Newgate prison via the "Patapscoe Merchant" sailed 17 April 1733. He was sentenced for stealing five yards of linsey-woolsey cloth worth three shillings. At that time it took nearly a year's wages to buy a ticket to come to the colonies.

Within 13 years William owned "Prince Spring Plantation" in King George's County in Maryland and a family man married to Sarah.

He is listed on the tithable lists of Loudon County Virginia in 1758 and sold land in Loudon County in 1765. Sarah is listed alone in 1769. He apparently died in Loudon Co. Va. ca. 1766-1768.

William the Progenitor is assumed to be the great grandson of a William baptized June 7, 1608 in Great Hughton County of Northampton and who "moved to London". In London William was a merchant who did business with the American Colonies. He is frequently referred to as "Captain". His brother Richard lived in America but produced no children.

William born 1608 was brother to Francis born Nov. 8, 1601. Who was grandfather of Sir Francis Atterbury (Bishop of Rochester in 1713) So William the Progenitor is assumed to have been a second cousin once removed to Sir Francis Atterbury.

He is not the first Attebery in America but may be the first to put down longstanding roots.

The nine Atterbury men found on the 1790 census in South Carolina are assumed to be his sons.

- 3 1. Charles Attebery ca 1747 in Maryland died 1830 in Grayson Co ,Ky. 1790 census lists 9 children 5 m 4 f.
- 2 2. James Attebery b. ca. 1758 Va. died Monroe co. Mo. 1843. 1790 census lists 4 children 2 m. 2f.
- 6 3. John Attebery b ca. 1751 Maryland. died 1806 Chester Co. South Carolina.1790 census lists 4 children all males several children born later (11 children)
- 8 4. Timber Thomas Attebery b ca. 1755 Maryland or Va. Died 1840 Howard Co. Mo. Listed on the tithable list 1771 i.e. 16 years or older. 1790 census lists 2 children both males. 8 children total.

- 4 5. Richard Ateberry b. ca 1748 Maryland died ca 1808-1813 Hardin Co. Ky.. 1790 census lists 6 children 3 m 3f. several children born later. total 14.
- 2 6. William Attebery b. ca. 1746 Maryland died 1794 Chester Co S.C. not on tithable lists of 1761 (i.e. less than 16) 1790 census lists 9 children 5m, 4f. proven by will.
- 5 7. Nathan(iel) b. 1750 Maryland died 1796 Chester Co, South Carolina. 1790 census lists 4 children 1m 3f. deeds by heirs indicate 3 sons 1 daughter.
- 7 8. Edward b ca. 1753 Maryland died 1824 Daviess Co. Ky. Listed on tithable list 1769. 1790 census lists 5 children 2m 3f. one born later total 6.
- 1 9. Michael b. ca. 1744 Maryland died ca 1820-1830 Grayson Co. Ky. on Tithable table list 1760. 1790 census lists 10 children. 5m 5f. Michael had land grants in S. C. in 1785 and 1786. 1790 census lists Michael in Orangesburg Dist. of S.C. with a wife and 10 children. Not located on the 1800 census. found in 1810 census in Grayson Co. KY. with 2 young children. no will or estate probaton located.

DESCENDANTS OF WILLIAM ATTEBERRY (Born ca 1700 England, Christened 25 June 1710 Died 1766/1768 Loudoun County, VA)

Tracing Lester ATTEBERRY to William.....My father Lester ATTEBERRY (1896-1987) was born and spent his life in Greene County, IL. Until summer 1996 based on family hearsay our only knowledge of the ATTEBERRY's was that my grandfather Richard Allen ATTEBERRY (1860-1909) was probably from Wayne County, IL. That was confirmed in June at the Greene County Courthouse, Carrollton, IL by obtaining a copy of his marriage license dated 5 Nov 1887. His father was a Richard ATTEBERRY (1820-1909) and his mother Eliza Close and they were from Wayne County.

Several weeks later at the Ft. Wayne (Indiana) Geneological Library we located in the 1860 census for Wayne County a Richard ATTEBERRY who had seven children--the youngest Richard A.,--5 months old, was my grandfather and his parents were Richard and Eliza ATTEBERRY just as stated on the wedding license. Now I had located my great grandfather!

Even more exciting a small miracle occurred for me that day in the library. A Nola ATTEBERRY Calhoun from Ohio noted on the guest register that we were researching ATTEBERRY's. She called and sent us a packet of information tracing her line to William from London....his son Richard (buried in Kentucky) had 14 children--one a Richard ATTEBERRY buried in Wayne County. He just had to be my great-great grandfather!

To double-check we travelled to Wayne County (fall 1996). All their courthouse records were burned in 1886, but the library has excellent cemetery and census records. The cemetery information listed a Richard ATTEBERRY, another RICHARD ATTEBERRY and Eliza all buried together in a small family plot on a farm. We plan another trip there this spring to located the cemetery. Dates on the Family Group Sheets match the cemetery and census records! This is the proof positive.

Bits & Pieces of ATTEBERRY Info.....Small wonder our name has so many different spellings. On Richard Allen ATTEBERRY's 1887 marriage license and certificate there are five different spellings. Also interesting there is a RICHARD in each of the six generations we trace to RICHARD ARTERBURY. The last one Richard VI (b. 1919) lives in Springfield, Illinois and is a first cousin.

In England (1995) we learned ATTERBURY is an Old English name and means "At the Bury" a town in the County of Lancashire about 15 miles north of Manchester. Surnames were fixed between 1250 and 1450 and usually adapted from a trade or location. (Dictionary of Surnames" by Basil Cottle, Penguin)

A Little History.....Before the penal colonies in Australia, England also deported prisoners to America. From the early 1600's till the end of the Revolutionary War over 30,000 were "transported" to the Colonies to serve as indentured servants. William ATTEBERRY was transported in 1733 (see attached) from notorious Newgate Prison in London. He can be considered fortunate to survive the trip...one in seven died aboard ship. Newgate was filthy, disease ridden, dark and damp...women, children, debtors all thrown in together. Many to die because they did not have the money to pay for their cells as required at "Newgate Gaol." ("The Fatal Shore" by Robert Hughes, Alfred A. Knopf, Inc. 1987)

1900 CENSUS - INDEX
 DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE
 BUREAU OF THE CENSUS

A-18

Aug. 31, 1999

Dear Shirley,

I was in St. Louis last Saturday and found some information about Naomi, daughter of Richard and Eliza (Close) Atteberry. I first found John and Naoma Shafer in the 1900 Soundex of Missouri. Then I found them in the 1900 census. The census records indicate that at least four of the children were born in Kansas. I tried to find them in the 1880 Soundex of Kansas, but failed.

The cemetery records of Crawford Co., MO pretty well prove Naomi's connection to Richard and Eliza. She was born in Wayne Co., Ill., married in Jerseyville, lived in Cuba, MO., named a son Richard Allen and a daughter Eliza. It's interesting that the children ended up in St. Louis.

Sincerely,

Wayne

Dear Shirley,

I was in St. Louis last Saturday and found some information about Henry, daughter of Richard and Alice (Jones) Anthony. I first found John and Helen (Helen) in the 1900 Census of Missouri. Then I found them in the 1920 Census. The census records indicate that a total of 10 children were born to Henry. I tried to find them in the 1930 Census of Kansas, but failed.

The cemetery records of Crawford Co., MO, truly well prove Henry's connection to Richard and Alice. She was born in Wayne Co., Ill., married in Jasperville, Mo., in 1900. MO, census 1900 and Richard Allen and a daughter, Alice. It is interesting that the children listed are in St. Louis.

Sincerely,

Wayne Anderson

Dear Shirley,

Thanks for the kind words about the book. Some of the books I received have some small, light green stains on some of the pages. The print is clear. The stains are mostly along the edge of the pages. Anyway, the publishing company refunded me $10 per book for the ones that were not up to par. So, if anyone is interested, I have several copies available for $79.95, including shipping.

I have received information from several of people since printing the book. I thought I would mention two of them to you and if you have not received information from them, I will send copies to you.

1. Lee Raney sent some Simpkin information. Most of the new stuff is about descendants of Kate Jane Atteberry d/o Wm. Franklin Atteberry who married Sarah Alice Simpkins. nothing
2. Christina Blanton sent a lot of information about descendants of Charles Shelton Atteberry (Nathan, Charles, William).

Also, Dee Geblin wrote about her ancestor, ^{Eliza}~~Kate~~ Atteberry who married Henry Janke/Yahncke. They were from Greene Co., Ill. Their son Henry Clay Yahncke was living with Jeff Atteberry in Wayne County in 1900. I told her about Eliza C. d/o Richard and Eliza (Close) Atteberry as the best possibility. Since then, I've been working on this and this is what I've found:

1. Elizabeth Atterbury m. Henry Yohuck, Nov. 20, 1872 in Greene Co., Ill.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the plane was the fresh air. It felt like I had been in a bubble for hours. The sun was shining brightly, and the birds were singing. I took a deep breath and felt a sense of peace. I had been so stressed lately, and this was exactly what I needed. I walked towards the car, feeling a sense of freedom. The driver smiled at me, and I felt like I was home. I got into the car and drove home, feeling a sense of relief. I had made it. I was home.

Have enclosed pictures of Eliza and her sons Henry Clay and George. I'm convinced that she was the daughter of Richard and Eliza (Close) Atteberry. I finally found Carpenter, Ill. - just north of Edwardsville in Madison County. This is where Henry C. Yahncke was born. It is also where one of Richard Allen Atteberry's sisters lived. I believe that Eliza married Henry Janke/Yahncke and had two sons. Henry died and she married Antoine Schwalb. It may be that Henry C. and George didn't get along with Antoine. Anyway in 1900 Henry C. was in Wayne County and George was in the Madison County jail.

This is what I feel like is correct:

Eliza C. (or K.) Atteberry

b. March 1855, Ill.

m1. Henry Janke/Yahncke, Nov. 10, 1872 in Greene Co., Ill.

b. ca 1830, Hannover, Germany

d. before 1900

ch. 1. Henry Clay Yahncke

b. Dec. 25, 1875 (or 73), Carpenter, Madison Co., Ill.

d. Nov. 20, 1952 St. Louis, Mo.

2. George Yahncke

b. Feb. 26, 1882

d. Jan., 1963

m2. Antoine Schwalb

b. Jan. 1847, Germany

I have also received a group sheet for Thomas Atteberry (David, Richard, William) form Donald Copeland and some information from Chris Grove.

And last, Marguerite Emmons has written a few times. She has the Richard J. Atteberry that I listed as a son of Thomas Edward and Susanna (Clemmons) Atteberry as a son of Thomas Atteberry (William). She also believes that Thomas's wife was Luraney instead of Bridget Murray. The reason I listed him as a son of Thomas Edward is because the death records that I copied was from the Register of the Kentucky Historical Society, Vol. 52, #178 gave Richard J.'s parents as Richard and Susaney Atteberry. She has a copy of the original and says it is definitely "Luraney." This may be true, but I have a little bit of problem in tossing out Bridget Murray as the wife of Thomas. I don't think I'll rearrange my family tree just yet.

Please let my know which of these people you have received information from, so I'll know what to send.

GRAYVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Grayville Presbyterian Church, one of the early religious organizations of the city, was originally organized as a Cumberland Presbyterian Church one hundred and five years ago. On June 27, 1850, a group of citizens—Isaac Hamilton, Susan G. Hamilton, Henry Phelps, Elizabeth J. Phelps, Orville Goodrich, Jane M. Goodrich, David N. Hamilton and Lydia G. Hamilton—perfected the organization. The Rev. William Finley was the officiating minister and he later became the first pastor of the church. For a number of years services were held in the Primitive Baptist church and during the year of 1868 a church building was elected at the corner of Court and South streets, where for 38 years services were conducted.

During the year 1906, under the pastorate of the Rev. John Welsh, the congregation voted to merge with the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, of which it is now a member.

The imposing structure which now serves as a meeting place was erected in 1915, during the pastorate of the Rev. R. G. Shafer.

The one hundredth anniversary of the church was observed on August 27, 1950. Rev. John Welsh and Rev. J. S. Farrell, former pastors, assisted in the program with the Rev. George Clementson as the regular pastor.

Present Pastor of the church is the Rev. Jack McIntyre, who is also pastor of the Union church, located southwest of the city.

I have determined that this Thomas is the one referred to in the Macon County history books as "Big Tom".

"Among the early settlers closer to what was to be the Village of Macon, the Atterbury family should be given special mention."

In 1840 Thomas Atteberry, familiarly known as "Big Tom" Atteberry, now living near the center of the township, was traveling through the county and lost his way at night. He camped on the prairie. Daylight showed he was only a short distance from a house which proved to be the one occupied by William Morris and family. William Morris and his family came to Macon County in 1835 from Indiana and built a cabin on Section 12 of T 14 N R 2 E, just north of what is now known as Long Grove (a long strip of timber, about 3/4 mile in width running along the southern edge of the township).

Big Tom made a clearing to the west of Long Grove district and later erected the first brick house in the township which still stands on what is now known as the James King farm, southeast of Macon (in 1978 was on the Verna King land).

My thought on Thomas "traveling through the county" is that he actually was already in the county and living with his father, David. The 1840 census of Macon County shows two males in David's household (1 born 1820-1825 and 1 born 1810-1820). These males should be Noah, born 1822, and Thomas, born ca 1816.

The Macon County histories go on to say that another Thomas Atteberry, commonly called "Black Tom", to distinguish him from his cousin who had lighter hair, built a house on Section 8 in T 14 N R 2 E, and brought his family of eight persons from Breckenridge (another source states Hardin) County, Kentucky in 1845. (This was Thomas H. Atteberry, son of our Richard). He evidently followed his brother, David Atteberry, to Macon County. "Black Tom" moved around a lot and finally located on a hill north of Long Grove Cemetery, where he died several years later."

Also about the same time, Richard Atteberry^{sl. Thomas?} moved from Grayson County, Kentucky and settled on Section 12, T 14 N R 2 E.

The other Atteberrys built in the same strip of timber as "Big Tom" but further west, some as far as what is now Walker and some of them who died were buried just north of Walker School house on the edge of what is now the road crossing Walker Bridge. (I think the "other" Atteberrys must be referring to David).

My thought on Thomas "traveling through the county" is that he actually was

Humly complaining sheweth unto you Honor your Orator Noah Atterbury of said County, that on or about the day of A. D. 1848 your Orator together with David Atterbury, Father of your Orator & now deceased purchased a certificate of Land Warrant Number 7065, your Orator & the said David each paying for said Certificate an equal sum - that said David in the Land Office at Vandalia in said State on or about the day of 1848 located said Land Warrant upon the following described land - to wit - The North half of the South East quarter & the South half of the North East quarter all of Section Number Eight (8) in Township Number Fourteen (14) North, of Range Number Two (2) East of the Third Principle Meridian all in said County, & received a Certificate therefor in the name of himself - the said David & none other that it was intended, understood & agreed by & between the said David & your Orator that your Orator should have the East half of the said two pieces or parcels of land & the said David the West half of the two pieces or parcels of land first aforesaid & that the said David should & would convey by a good & sufficient Title the said East half of said two pieces or parcels of land - to wit - The North East quarter of the South East quarter & the South East quarter of the North East quarter of said Section Number Eight (8) to the said Noah your said Orator, & that he, the said David, intended & was about so to convey as aforesaid to your Orator according to the intention understanding & agreement of & by the said David & your Orator, but that he the said David, suddenly sickened & died, without & before conveying to your Orator any part or portion of said land so purchased with an equal portion of the funds of each the said David & your Orator as aforesaid - with the intent understanding & agreement as aforesaid - And your Orator unto you Honor further sheweth that the said David left heirs to his Estate - Sarah Atterbury (widow of litem may be appointed all of whom your Orator prays may be made defendants herein together with Charles Emerson of the County of Edgar in said State & Thomas Attorney of said County of Maccom Administrators of the estate of the said David Attorney deceased. And your Orator prays that the said Defendants may upon their several respective corporal oaths full true & perfect answer make to all & singular the premises as fully & particularly as if the same were here again repeated & they thereunto interrogated, & more especially that they may set forth & disclose, whether they do not know have heard, or been informed & in their consciences believe that the said David & your Orator each furnished an equal amount of funds with which was purchased said Certificate of said Sand Warrent: that said Certificate was intended for & did belong to the said David & your Orator equally. That though entered in the name of the said David, yet the said North East quarter of the South East quarter & the said South East quarter of the North East quarter was entered by the said David on account of & intended for your Orator, & that it was understood & intended by & between the said David & your Orator, & agreed that the said David should & would convey by a good & sufficient title the said last mentioned land to your Orator.

And your Orator prays that a Commissioner be appointed to convey to your Orator by a good & sufficient conveyance the said last mentioned two pieces or parcels of land & that your Orator may be otherwise & further relieved in the premises according to equity & good conscience.

And now on this fifth day of the term came the petitioners by Beecher George & Sailor their solicitors and the respondants, Franklin Atteberry, Charlotte Atteberry, Nathan Atteberry and Joseph Renfro by John Keen Jr. their Guardian ad Litem; and it appearing to the court that the respondents Franklin Attebery, Joseph Renfro, Lucinda Kurtz, Charlotte Attebery, and Nathan Attebery were each duly served with process of this court more than ten days prior to the commencement of the present term; and it further appearing to the court that the respondents Patsey C. Edwards and Elizabeth Attebery are non-residents of the State of Illinois and that they have had due and legal notice of this proceeding by publication in the Fairfield Democrat a public newspaper published in Wayne County Illinois for three consecutive weeks the first insertion of which was more than forty days prior to the commencement of this term; and the Court having appointed John Keen Jr. guardian ad Litem for said infant defendants; and the said guardian ad litem having filed an answer to said petition neither admitting nor denying the allegations therein contained but asking the court to take charge of their interests and requiring strict proof of the allegations in said bill; and the court having ordered that this cause be referred to the Master in Chancery of this court, to take proof of the matters alleged in said petition and to report the same to the court; and the said master having made report, which is hereby approved and confirmed.

And this cause coming on to be heard upon the petition, answer of the respondents by John Keen for their guardian ad Litem, together with the testimony taken, and reported to the court by the said master; and the court being fully advised in the premises, and on consideration thereof doth find that Thomas J. Re: Simeon B. Atteberry, s/o Richard and Patsy

The Pleasant Grove Church Minutes come through again.

The 2nd wife of Simeon B. Atteberry was Elizabeth Woolen, sister to Harriet Woolen, who married James Asa Atteberry, s/o Nathan.

I believe the Woolen (Wollen) sisters were children of Levi (Leven) and Mary (Polly) Woolen.

I found a Partition suit involving the heirs of Thomas J. Wollen, who died 3 July 1873. (Case in Court, March Term 1874) He left his mother, brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews as his heirs.

One of his sisters was Elizabeth Atteberry, who was residing out of the state in 1874. It also names nephew Franklin Atteberry, niece Charlotte Atteberry and nephew Nathan Atteberry. They were the children of his deceased sister, Harriet (Wollen) Atteberry.

The sister, Elizabeth (Woolen) Atteberry had me stumped. Finally, I came across Simeon B. with an unidentified wife Elizabeth. I recalled that Simeon B. was in the Pleasant Grove Church Minutes.

Sure enough - p. 41 - Elizabeth Atteberry (wooling) was dismissed by letter Oct. 1870. I held my breath while I checked Simeon B. Eureka! he was also dismissed Oct. 1870.

p. 28 shows that Bro. Simeon B. Atteberry and Sister Elizabeth Atteberry were granted letters of dismission Oct. 1870. She was the only Sister Elizabeth Atteberry granted a letter of dismission in Oct, 1870; therefore she was Elizabeth (wooling) Atteberry, shown on p. 41.

The DAR likely wouldn't accept it as proof, but I do.

Joseph Renfro, nephew, was also an heir of Thomas J. Woolen. He was the son of Noah Renfro & his 1st wife, Emily Woolen. Noah Renfro was the s/o Amos Renfro and Jane (Atteberry) Renfro Harl.

Caleb, born Dec. 5, 1851, died Aug. 18, 1855; Simon, born Dec. 15, 1852, married Mary Johnson, and again married Mary E. Cale, and resides in Indiana; Preston, born July 20, 1855, married Mary E. Jordan, and resides in Burnt Prairie Township; David C., born Oct. 22, 1857, married Miss Frances M. B. Rawls, Jan. 9, 1879, who was born Nov. 31, 1860, in Burnt Prairie Township; Emeline, born Jan. 10, 1860, married Henry Wetlaw, March 1, 1881, and resides in Burnt Prairie Township; Amanda, born Jan. 15, 1862, married Jacob Majors May 10, 1880, and resides in Burnt Prairie Township; Sarah E., born March 9, 1864; Alice, born Dec. 27, 1866; Julia A., born Aug. 22, 1869. Mr. Virgil Funkhouser owns a farm of 300 acres in Burnt Prairie Township, 240 under cultivation. In politics he is a Democrat, and cast his first vote for President for James R. Polk. Mr. and Mrs. Funkhouser are members of the Missionary Baptist church.

William Gray was born in Wayne County, near Liberty, White County, Jan. 2, 1834. His parents were William and Rutha (Hardin) Gray, natives of Virginia. When six years of age he moved with his parents to Burnt Prairie Township, White County, where the father died some two years after. William then lived with his mother on the farm until August, 1862, when he enlisted in Company F, Ninety-eighth Illinois Infantry. He remained in the service until the close of the war, when he returned home. In January, 1866, he married Susan Watkins, a native of Burnt Prairie Township and a daughter of Elias and Matilda (Williams) Watkins. After his marriage Mr. Gray settled on his present farm on sections 18 and 17, Burnt Prairie Township, where he and family reside. Mr. and Mrs. Gray have seven children—Alonzo L., born Jan. 17, 1867; Wesley W., born Aug. 20, 1868; Sarah H., born Feb. 17, 1870; Martha A., born April 20, 1873; Rutha W., born Dec. 25, 1876; Mary P., born Sept. 8, 1878; Thomas L., born June 5, 1881. Mr. Gray owns a fine farm of eighty acres, fifty under cultivation. In politics he is a Republican.

John L. Hadden was born in Carmi Township, White Co., Ill., Feb. 24, 1852. His parents were Hardin and Clementine (Maddon) Hadden. His mother was a native of Tennessee. His father came to White County with his parents when a child. He was married here. He and his wife settled first in Carmi Township on a farm, where they lived until 1864, when he moved on his farm in Burnt Prairie Township, where he died May, 1876. His wife still resides on the old homestead. They were members of the Christian

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE

The undersigned, having been appointed Administrator and Administratrix of the Estate of Malinda Isabell Bigger, deceased, hereby gives notice that they will appear before the County Court of Wayne County, at the Court House in Fairfield at the January term on Monday, the 5th day of January, 1936, at which time persons having claims against said Estate are notified and requested to attend for the purpose of having the same adjusted.

All persons indebted to said Estate are requested to make immediate payment to the undersigned.

Dated this 16th day of November, A. D. 1935.

John H. Carter, as long as he lived of home never had five dollars worth of store clothing. The family made all their cloth of all kinds; tanned their own leather and made their own shoes. Mr. Carter never sported a pair of store shoes until grown.

Nathan Atteberry was born in South Carolina, August 10th, 1803, and in childhood was removed from there by his parents to Kentucky, where he remained until 1820, when he came to Wayne county, where he has remained ever since. He was first married in 1824 in this county. He is a hale and cheery old man, whose mind and body are strong, vigorous and active. His biography may be found in another part of this work. At the house of Mr. Atteberry, on the tenth day of last August (1883) was gathered some of the friends and old settlers to celebrate his eightieth birthday. Among the guests were the following:

Old Time Guests.

Richard L. Boggs, born in Kentucky March 6, 1811; came to Wayne county Illinois, in 1834; a physician by profession.

Pradi S. Meeks, born in Kentucky, April 20th, 1814; came to Wayne county in 1833.

Joseph Odell, born in Kentucky, March 24, 1813; came to Wayne county in 1826, a farmer.

Edward Butler, born in Kentucky July 14, 1816. He came to Wayne county in 1825. A farmer.

Silas Wilson, born in Kentucky, November 3rd, 1821; came to Wayne county in 1838, a farmer.

Andrew C. Wright, born in Wayne county, January 29th, 1823; a farmer. Margaret Ann Blissett, wife of Pradi S. Meeks, was born in Wayne county, June 14, 1819.

Jane Day, wife of Edward Butler, was born in White county, November 17, 1818.

Anna Gray, wife of Gambrel Tucker, was born in Kentucky, August 18, 1820; came to Wayne county in 1838. (1836)

Elizabeth Shrewsbury, widow of Lemuel H. Harris, late deceased, was born in Kentucky, August 18, 1822; came to Wayne county in 1841. She was married in 1842, by W. W. George, Justice of the Peace.

Sarah Renfrow, widow of Asa Atteberry, who died many years ago, was born in Georgia, September 12, 1812. She came to Wayne county in 1829.

Sarah Ann Files, widow of William Butler, deceased, was born in Kentucky, February 25, 1814; came to Illinois in childhood.

Eliza Emmick, widow of Elder Benjamin S. Meeks, deceased, was born in Gallatin county, October 6, 1827.

Borahs in 1818.

George Borah came with his family to Wayne county in 1818. Nathan N. Borah, his son, like many of this old and large family, is one of the most estimable citizens of the county. George Borah's family consisted of children by three different wives, having a father of six children, who arrived at man-or womanhood, five of whom, Mary Shaw, Martha Atteberry, Olive Way, Medsack George, and William W. George are still living, and one, Mabel Hamer-shott, is dead. Only two of his children, Mary Shaw and Martha Atteberry, are living here.

Long In Public Life.

Mr. George was continuously in public life from the time he attained his majority until his death. During this time there was one short period of eighteen months, during which he held no office. He was elected a Justice of the Peace, before he attained the age of twenty-one, and his commission was delayed until he arrived at legal age. He held the office of Justice of the Peace, forty-five years, was county Judge for four years; school commissioner six years; was also drainage commissioner for Wayne county, and two years commissioner on River Improvements undertaken by the state.

His father, John George, was born in Ireland, and when a child came to South Carolina, where he grew to manhood and married Mary Stone. She was born in South Carolina but was of Irish parentage. The father was in the war of 1812, after which in 1816 he removed to Kentucky, where he remained until 1824 at which time he removed to Illinois and settled in Gallatin county. In the last named county, and in White county, he spent the remainder of his life. From White county he went to the Black Hawk war serving until its close. He died in White county.

The First Tannery.

David Wright, 4th, came from New Jersey to Wayne county in 1819, and settled and improved the farm three miles south of Fairfield. He started the first tan-yard in the county using a wooden trough, which in time he increased to fourteen vats, in which he did an extensive business for those days—tanning all kinds of hides, even hog skins. The old family bible now in the possession of Charles W. Wright, is covered with fawn skin tanned in his tannery. He soon opened a store and also built a horse mill, each of which was about the first of its kind in the county. People came fifteen and twenty miles to his old mill on horse back, often camping to wait for their turn. The product of the mill was bolted by hand. D. W. Barkley, (founder of the Wayne County Press) a grandson, says he has both lively and painful recollections of assisting in this part of the business. At least he remembers it was not so agreeable as driving the horses and riding on the beam. Mr. Wright had his merchandise hauled from Shawneetown, Mt. Vernon, Indiana, and Evansville, and his produce was taken to Beach Bluff and Mill Shoals and shipped to New Orleans by flat-boat. This mostly consisted of vension hams, wild turkey, honey, deer, coon skins, etc., In those days, two-horse wagons, in which were to be seen teams in har-

19. Further research by interested persons doubtless reveal many connections of pioneer Hardin County citizens with the events of the War of 1812.

The writer has recently discovered through research in the National Archives, the military history of Thomas Hill, a relative through marriage to early members of the McClure family of this area. Hill served as drummer in Captain William Phillips' Company H of the 15th Regiment of Kentucky Detached Militia, commanded by Colonel Gabriel Slaughter, later to become the eleventh governor of Kentucky. Hill was in the expedition to New Orleans and took part in the battle there. He stated in application for land bounty, due for service, that he joined the regiment on November 10, 1814, near Shippingport on the Ohio River. He was discharged in May, 1815, in Washington County. He lived in the Leitchfield area until his death February 23, 1866. A man named Benjamin Metcalf, who later lived in Edmonson County, served in the same company with Thomas Hill. General John Thomas, who attained the rank of major general of the Kentucky Militia during the War of 1812, which was the same rank held by Andrew Jackson, was one of four major generals of Kentucky Militia, the others being General William Henry, General Joseph Desha and General William Henry Harrison. Thomas entered the war as a captain, then became major in a battalion of mounted volunteers attached to Colonel William Russell's regiment of U.S. regulars. He was later lieutenant colonel of the 2nd Regiment of Mounted Volunteers; it was in this unit that Benjamin Helm enlisted as a member of Captain Aaron Hart's Company. Helm returned from the New Orleans campaign as a major.

When Governor Shelby issued a call for troops for the New Orleans campaign, three regiments of Kentucky Detached Militia were organized under General Thomas, with John Adair as his adjutant general, and with George Helm (father of Governor Helm) and Major James Crutcher, both of Elizabethtown, on his staff. The men floated down the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers on flatboats, few of them with arms or equipment, most with no military training. The troops arrived in New Orleans a short time before the battle was fought January 8, 1815. Most of the men by then had been furnished weapons and their part in the battle contributed to the defeat of the British forces. There was some controversy as to their conduct, with General Thomas seriously ill at the time of the battle and the Kentucky troops being led by General Adair. Investigation disclosed that the Kentuckians had behaved well under fire and had held fast against Britain's finest soldiers, veterans of the war against Napoleon. Three of General Thomas' sons took part in the fight.

Thomas, when a captain, at the siege of Fort Meigs in 1813, was involved in heavy fighting and conducted himself in a brilliant manner. He was at that time attached to Colonel Boswell's Regiment; John Vertrees of Elizabethtown was an ensign of the 4th Company of the regiment of Colonel Dudley, which was also at the Fort Meigs battle.

Daniel Johnston, the early jailer of Hardin County whose widow, Sarah Bush, married Thomas Lincoln in 1819, was a soldier in the War of 1812.

Benjamin Keith, son of Alexander Keith, an early citizen of the county, was born July 4, 1792, and died June 28, 1876. He was at the Battle of Tippecanoe and was wounded at the Battle of the Thames.

Abraham Wickliffe Van Meter, born April 1, 1789, son of Jacob Van Meter, Jr., served under General Jackson at New Orleans.

Jacob Vertrees, son of John Vertrees, a Revolutionary War veteran, attained the rank of captain.

Thomas Kincheloe, while not a resident of the Elizabethtown area, was a settler in part of the original Hardin County that became Breckinridge. He settled on Rough Creek above the fort at Hartford, and purchased lots in the town of Hardinsburg before it was established in 1801. He served in the First Company of the Battalion of Mounted Kentucky Volunteer Militia, organized June 24, 1813 and attached to Colonel William Russell's Regiment of U.S. Regulars. Kincheloe was captain, David H. Moorman was lieutenant, William Hardin, Jr., was adjutant, Isaac DeHaven was ensign, and Joseph Allen, quartermaster. At that time General John Thomas was major of the battalion, which consisted of one-hundred twenty-nine men.

An interesting news item dated January 28, 1898, in The Elizabethtown News, said: "George Vessells, a veteran of War of 1812 dies at age of 99, one of the last survivors from this section. He was one of the 2000 raw recruits who floated down Ohio and Mississippi on rafts to fight at New Orleans. He would not accept a pension, saying he had only done his duty, the same as his father, Benedict Vessells, who would not accept pension for Revolutionary War service. Vessells was born in Marion County, died near Bethlehem, where he had lived for many years."

One of the Kentucky units organized for service during the War of 1812 was the company commanded by Captain Edward Rawlings, attached to the Regiments commanded by Lieutenant-Colonels Nicholas Miller and Benjamin Wright, Kentucky Militia, Detached, for a six months term. With a Muster-In date of March 8, 1813, this unit was composed mainly of men from the Elizabethtown and Hardin County area. The names of many of them are found on the records of the 1810 Federal Census for Hardin County. The members of the company were as follows: Edward Rawlings, captain; Moses Hart, lieutenant; William Hanks, ensign; John Richardson, first sergeant; John West, second sergeant; Silas Enyard, third sergeant; Jacob Utterback, fourth sergeant; John Stith, first corporal; James Linville, second corporal; James Goodwin, third corporal; Mathias Ambrose, fourth corporal.

The following are listed as privates in the company: John V. Ament, George Angel, Abisha Ashcraft, Solomon Atterbury, Joshua Barlow, Jared (Gerrard) Boling (Bowling), John Boling, William Carter, William Carter (2nd), Cadwallader Churchill, David Clopton, William Coy, Samuel Dixon, James Dougherty, William Dougherty, James Duffey, John Duffey, James Duley (Dooley), Daniel Frakes (Fraikes), Charles French, Silas Gaddie, William Gardner, Daniel Gibson, Edward Goff, Thomas Gray, Lawrence Green, Daniel Greenault, Philip Hall, Ezekial Harlin, William Harris, Silas Hart, David Hawkins, Thomas Hill, David Johnson, Jesse Johnson, John Johnson, Samuel Kennedy, Abraham Lambert, Isaac Lash, James Logsdon, Samuel McCarty, Allen McDowell, Isaac

Milner, William Morrison, Thomas Olvey (Alvey), John Ora, John Pauley, Cebert Pearman, Samuel Pearman, James Perciful, Roddy Purcel, Hugh S. Ross, Robert Rouser, George Rust, William Salling, John South, William South, Richard E. Stewart, Jesse Stockwell, John Tibbs, Silas Twedwell, Benjamin Utterback, Joseph Vanmeter, William Walker, Thomas West, Alexander Williams, and Samuel Wollard.

The Roll of the Field and Staff of the Second Regiment Kentucky Mounted Militia—War of 1812, lists John Thomas as lieutenant colonel, Thomas Speed as major, John Calloway also a major, Benjamin Helm as adjutant, William Akin as junior adjutant, Cyrus Talbert, quartermaster, Stephen Chenault as quartermaster sergeant, George Helm as sergeant-major, Henry Young, surgeon and David Brown as a surgeon's mate.

John Thomas, whose experience in the Revolutionary War assured him a position of some rank when the War of 1812 broke out, was captain of a company prior to promotions which eventually took him to the rank of major-general. His company, which was part of the Second Regiment of Kentucky Mounted Militia, had a number of Hardin Countians and local men on its roster. When Thomas was promoted, the captaincy of the company went to Aaron Hart. Benjamin Helm was lieutenant, the ensign was Joseph Monnie (Monin?); The sergeants, George Helm, Robert C. Slaughter and Nathaniel Lender (Linder?). Privates in this company were: John Ashbough, James Black, John Bush, George A. Blesset, Thomas C. Crutcher, Alexander Carsen, Christian Cregor, John Crawford, Winstead Constance, William Dale, William Goggin, Charles Helm, Jacob Hodges, James Hockley, John Howell, Jesse Kerby, Joseph Kirkpatrick, Peter Kermichael, Samuel Kennady, Jesse Keeth (Keith?), John Miller, Arthur McGouhrey, John Morrison, Reuben Newton, Moses Pigg, Stephen Rawlings, Dudley Rountree, Edward Raux, Richard Rudd, Henry Rhodes, Edward Rawlings, George Rust, John Shackelford, Thomas Shackelford, George Syper, Armstead Smoot, John Smoot, Humphrey Smoot, Joseph Thomas, and Edward Walker.

This is the company referred to by Mr. Haycraft in his writing of Major Ben Helm:³ "... He was a prudent and provident man and soon became independent in his circumstances. In the year 1812 there was a call for volunteers under General Hopkins. The Major then being forty-five years of age was a volunteer in Colonel Aaron Hart's company, although being in affluent circumstances and rather feeble health, he answered to the call of his country. That was a mounted force, each man furnishing his own horse, gun and ammunition, rations for himself and provender for his horse. The force amounted to two thousand men; there was no commissary or quartermaster, and not a solitary wagon; his brothers, Charles Helm and George Helm, Thomas S. Crutcher—all of this town in the company; beyond Louisville there was no roads, the route was through the woods, guided by the sun during the day and by the stars at night. As they progressed they found the Indian towns deserted. When about thirty or forty miles beyond the Tippecanoe, the rear guard of the retreating Indians set fire to the tall grass of the prairie, which burned with great rapidity, involving the safety of the army. ...

"... and they would have been destroyed had they not sought safety in a swamp near at hand. Finding it impossible to overtake the wily Indians, and the stock of provisions running low, General Hopkins marched the army back. On the return, Major Helm was taken very sick, and for want of an ambulance he had to be carried on a litter between two horses for a march of two days."

Another War of 1812 Militia Company which contained men from that part of Hardin County which is now Meade County was Captain Benjamin Shackett's (Shacklett's) in Colonel Williams' Regiment, Kentucky Mounted Volunteer Detached Militia. It apparently was a one-month company, being enlisted from June 24, 1813 to July 25, 1813. The following names are listed on the Company Roll: Benjamin Shackett, captain; Edward Rawlings, lieutenant; Joseph Mannin, ensign; the sergeants, Charles Helm, Edmund Guthrie, Robert Shaw, Henry Reed. Declaration for Widow's Army Pension.

State of Illinois
County of Wayne

Where marked by a X, put out what is correct and possible

On the 31st day of May A. D. one thousand eight hundred and sixty three personally appeared before me, R. E. Mabry Clerk of the Circuit Court within and for the County and State aforesaid Sidney J. Alleberry a resident of Fairfield in the County of Wayne and State of Illinois aged 30 years, who being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on her oath, make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provisions made by the act of Congress, approved July 14, 1862. That she is the widow of John Alleberry, who enlisted in the service of the United States, at Springfield, in the State of Illinois on the 1 day of March, 1862, as a Private in Company D commanded by X in the 60 Regiment of Illinois in the war of 1861;

who while in the service aforesaid, in the line of his duty contracted disease of lungs & spleen & spleen which caused tubercular consumption which caused his death at Wayne Co in the State of Illinois on the 13 day of March A. D., 1879. She further declares that she was married to the said John Alleberry in the County of Franklin and State of Illinois on the 29th day of March in the year 1864
that her name before said marriage was Sidney Jane Whittington that her husband, the aforesaid John Alleberry, died on the day above mentioned, and that she has remained a widow ever since that period, as will more fully appear by reference to the proof hereto annexed. She further swears that she has the following named children of her deceased husband and herself, under sixteen years of age, who are now living, the dates of whose births were as given below, to-wit:

Phoebe Elizabeth Alleberry	born on the 15 day of July	18 67
Joan Edmund	" born on the 21 day of March	18 74
John Henry	" born on the 17 day of March	18 79
	born on the _____ day of _____	18____
	born on the _____ day of _____	18____

And that the above named children are the only legitimate children of herself and her said husband, now living, who are under sixteen years of age. She further declares that she has not remarried since the death of her said husband, nor has she abandoned the support of any one of the children above named, nor permitted any one of the same to be adopted by any other person or persons as his, her or their child.

And further, that her said husband has left no minor child by a former marriage

This applicant husband, drew pension of twelve dollars per month pension certificate No 97,581, hereby returned,

She also declares that she has not in any manner, been engaged in, or aided or abetted the rebellion in the United States.
She hereby appoints Ph. Fitzgerald of Indianapolis
State of Indiana, her true and lawful Attorney, with full power of substitution to prosecute this claim for pension, and to receive the certificate that may be issued therefor. She requests that her pension be paid at Chicago State of Illinois Her Post Office
address is Fairfield County of Wayne
State of Illinois

Signature of Claimant, Sidney J. Alleberry
Witnesses: M. F. Mabry
Andrew B. Matthews

He further declares that as he is informed and believes that on the 16th day of Aug AD 1880 in Hamilton County Illinois said John J. Atteberry was married to one William H.
Atteberry as will more fully appear from the certified copy of the record of the said
Hamilton County Illinois hereunto filed. He makes this application for the purpose of having his name as Guardian of the said minors placed upon the petition roll of the U.S. and desires all communication regarding this claim mailed to him at Fairfield Illinois, Wayne County.
P.O. E. C. Kraemer

Also at the same time and place appeared
N. S. McCann and J. C. Truesdale persons whom I certify to be reputable and entitled to full credit who being first duly sworn do hereby state that they were present and saw E. C. Kraemer sign the foregoing Declaration that they are acquainted with him, and he is the identical person he represents himself to be, that he is a good citizen, and that they have every reason to believe all his statements are true as mentioned in the said Declaration.

...ary, in pursuance of the charter of that road.

THE Olney Times, while favoring the county organization system, admits that it fails to give satisfaction in Richland. It says: "There seems to be a great deal of dissatisfaction throughout the county with the management of county affairs under the new system adopted last fall, and the indications now are that township organization will be re-adopted by the people at the very next opportunity."

THE good book says, "By their works ye shall know them." The leaders of the Democracy in this county have always boasted that this is a "banner Democratic county," and prided themselves that their Democracy is the genuine unadulterated article. Now we are willing to take their word for it, and accept the condition of our county offices as a fair sample of what would result should the party obtain control of the Government.

THE Supreme Court has affirmed the finding of the lower courts in the case of Crawford vs. Schroder, from Bloomington. This was a case in which the widow of Thomas Crawford sued for damage caused by the death of her husband through intoxication, Schroder being the owner of the building in which the saloon was located. The verdict was for $5,500. This is an important decision, as it settles the legality of the civil damage liquor law.

THE heads of messes of the court house ring are now to be seen talking up plans for the future, and in each and all of the different plans presented none but members of the clique who are always hanging around the county offices are talked of as party standard bearers. Reform will never be accomplished until each and every one of these leeches are made to look up some other line of business for a livelihood—the county has kept them long enough.

THE Democrats owe it to themselves to speedily, permanently and properly deal with the case.—Courier.

Yes, but will they do it? If it is their duty to deal with the case now that it is out to hurt the party, is it not more their duty to

Burnt Prairie—North.

Wheat harvest is about coming to a focus, after a three weeks sluge. Some have commenced stacking, but only that first harvested.

Miss Bettie Vaught, one of Burnt Prairie's most handsome belles goes on a crutch, having lamed herself by stepping on a nail.

The difficulty in the Mt. Pleasant (Baptist) church, was brought to an ending last Saturday after a trial before a committee of three different churches. The verdict was that Jas. A. Puntney owed an acknowledgement to the church for telling a falsehood, which he refuses so far to do.

Ezekiel Hunsinger has just finished harvesting over one hundred acres of wheat and there is still more on his place that tenants have to cut.

Mrs. Polly McCollough, of Liberty is seriously ill. P. J. Puckett M. D. attends her. He has declared her in all her afflictions for thirty years.

Ezekiel Atteberry we learn will be joined in matrimony to day to Mrs. Engiel.

GRAYVILLE.

Our bold soldier boys have been expecting a call to Chicago, but as the outlook is not quite so formidable there now, many of the boys doubtless breathe easier. The Co. received 1,000 rounds of ammunition from the Adj.-Gen. last week, in order to be prepared for an emergency.

Everybody seems interested in our 4th of July celebration. Gigantic arrangements are in progress and an immense time is expected. Capt. Vandegrift says he fears his steamer will not be large enough to carry the people who are coming from New Harmony.

One of our handsome young ladies has been visiting in Phillipstown for several days, and last Saturday she sent her parents word to send her trunk to Carmi, addressed Mrs. Mary Jones, which would be her name after Sunday. Her parents were bitterly opposed to this arrangement, so her brother, Geo. Glover, and an uncle, went to Phillipstown Saturday night, to try to dissuade the girl, but we learn their efforts were of no avail, therefore we presume that Mr. Robert E. Jones and Miss Mary Glover are now firmly united in the holy bonds of matrimony. In cases of this kind young people often find that what they so much desired, a husband or wife, was just what they did not want.

Grayville must be a desirable circus place, as we have the flaming advertisements of two on our fences and barns now.

Miss Patty Ary, of Carmi, with her friend Miss Edith Preston, two handsome and accomplished young ladies, were Miss Ida Morey's guests a few days the past week.

Jim Maggs, who was shot in a drunken row recently by one Lazier, is now reported improving, with every prospect of his recovery, although his wound was an exceedingly dangerous one.

Married Thursday, September 22, 1870, Francis M. Atteberry and Miss Elizabeth J. Mills both of this county by John Keen Jr., Esq. at the residence of the bride's mother.

BIOGRAPHY OF FRANCIS M. ATTEBERRY: from History of Wayne County, Ill.
pp. 140-141

F. M. Atteberry, farmer, P.O. Keenville, was born in Grayson County, Ky., and is a son of Stout and Annie L. (Crask) Atteberry. The father was born in South Carolina, the mother in Kentucky (for more facts concerning the parentage of our subject see the sketch of A.F. Attéberry); subject was the seventh of nine living children, and when he was quite young his parents moved to this county, and settled in Hickory Hill Township. He remained at home until about thirty, and then commenced farming, where he now resides. He owns 200 acres in Sections 28 and 33, of Town 1 South, Range 5 East; has about 160 acres in cultivation. Mr. Atteberry was married October 14, 1866 to Miss Emma J. Dewees, a daughter of Stephen Dewees, of Grayson County, Ky.; she was born July 30, 1832, and was the mother of one child, James F., who was born March 24, 1868 and died October 4, 1871. Mrs. Atteberry died October 27, 1868. Subject was married the second time, September 22, 1870 to Miss Elizabeth J. Mills, a daughter of Bradley and Rebecca (Ellis) Mills. The father was a native of New York, the mother of Hamilton County, Ill., and was of German descent. The present Mrs. Atteberry was born December 20, 1845, and is the mother of seven children, four of whom are now living---Albert S., born September 11, 1871; Rebecca F., born November 25, 1872; Melissa A., born May 1882. Of the deceased ones, an infant son was born January 19, 1874 and died the same day. Mr. Atteberry has served as a member of the County Board of Supervisors, also a School Trustee. He is identified with the Republican party.

Died at his residence in Hickory Hill Township, on Saturday, December 10, 1881, after a brief illness, Stout Atteberry, aged 80 years, 11 months, 10 days. Deceased was born in South Carolina, but was removed to Kentucky where he continued to live (except for a short time) until 1840, at which time he removed with his family to Wayne County where he continued to live until his death. Deceased leaves a wife and nine children to mourn his loss. He had been married 57 years the day before he died. His aged companion is now in her 77th year. Father Atteberry, united with the Regular Baptist Church over 60 years ago and has remained a consistent and faithful member ever since. His funeral was preached at his residence on Sunday afternoon by Elder J. B. Dobbs from Numbers 23:10 "Let me die the death of the righteous and let my last end be like his".

He was buried in the family cemetery. A devoted husband and father and a faithful child of God has gone. May we all adopt as our motto the language of the text and prepare to meet Father Atteberry.

Pictorial Number of the "Press."

THE PRESS of next week will be an unusually attractive one. In addition to containing the opening chapters of our new serial romance it will be richly illustrated with many engravings, humorous and otherwise. Among the pictures will be portraits of our matrimonial correspondents, L. B. C. and Maud Stanhope, whose identity has been the subject of widespread speculation. A picture of our avial friend, W. Crome, will also appear; likewise a faithful likeness of Col. Tompkins' bride. Other pictures of deep local interest are in preparation and many of our business men will attract attention to their stocks by means of appropriate engravings. Look out for an issue of the PRESS of phenomenal interest.

How to Get the O. & M. Half-Rate on Corn.

Recently Rev. Wm. M. Owen wrote H. H. Beecher, O. & M. Agent at Springfield, asking him what steps to take to secure the half-rate on corn promised by the O. & M. to farmers. In reply Mr. Owen received the following:

DEAR SIR:—Mr. Duncan has issued an order that farmers can ship at half-rate where they do not want it for speculation. You will have to pay the full rate and then send bill to St. Louis to Mr. Duncan, the General Freight Agent, and get your rebate. Have it consigned to yourself.

All stand at the head of the list in their respective departments of current literature. —The Messrs. of Chicago, Ill., have located in Fairfield and opened a boot and shoe shop in Taffie's building. They are intelligent gentlemen who see in Fairfield "the making" of a splendid town, and have come to share in the coming prosperity.

Theodore Edmondson, at one time publisher of one of the many predecessors of the PRESS, was heard from at Dallas, Texas, a few days since. In the language of that section he was "kicking for a job" in C. I. Wilmans' printing office.

—We shall next week publish a list of ladies who will keep open house on New Year's Day, and hope that many will send us their names.

—Real estate in Fairfield seems to be advancing. Last Saturday Master in Chancery Handley sold 66 feet of the Marble Front lot for $4000. The principal bidders were G. J. George and Johnson Bros., the latter getting the property.

—The Supervisors' proceedings, Fairfield school report and other articles of interest will appear next week.

—Buck Russell was last week killed by Tom Cook at Philipstown. Buck was wild with Carmi whisky and attacked Cook with a knife without cause, when Cook shot him through the heart. Carmi builds

—It pays to advertise. Last Wednesday week Dr. C. W. Sibley handed us a notice of a stray colt. And in three hours after the notice was received at the PRESS office the colt came trotting home, head and tail erect. The strangest feature of the affair was that the colt reported before the Dr.'s local had been put in type.

ATTEBERRY.—At his residence in Hickory township, on Saturday, Dec. 10, 1881, after brief illness, Stout Atteberry, aged 80 years, months and 10 days. Deceased was born in South Carolina but was removed when a child with the family to Kentucky where he continued to live (except for a short time) until 1840, which time he removed with his family to Wayne county where he has continued to reside until his death. CHAMBERS.—Died, at his late residence, Big Mound township, Wayne county, Ill., Dec. 7th, 1881, Rev. John Chambers, aged 62 years, months and 29 days. He had his birth in Ireland county Antrim, Oct. 8, 1819, and came to this country in 1841. As he did not keep a record of the prominent events of his life dates will have to be omitted. He joined the M. E. church when a boy, in which he continued a very worthy and useful member until the close of life. When I first formed the acquaintance of Bro. Chambers he was a local preacher. He sustained this relation until the close of life, earnest, faithful and zealous in his work. He was especially useful in revival meetings, laboring at the altar. He assisted his pastor in a meeting at Ebenezer church a few days before his death. Bro. Chambers was a man of strong convictions of right and wrong. He chose the right and then was firm. His anti-slavery sentiments rendered him odious in the estimation of many. While young he was recommended by the quarterly conference where he resided (which in Randolph county) for admission to the Illinois Conference, which then embraced the Stout (pronounced "Stot") Atteberry was born December 31, 1800 in Chester County, South Carolina. He moved with his parents to Hardin (later Grayson) County, Kentucky in the early 1800's. Stout accompanied Nathan to Wayne County in 1819 when the county was just beginning to be settled, but remained only a short time and then returned to Kentucky. On December 9, 1824, he married Lannia Lavina ("Fanny") Crask. They lived in Grayson or Ohio County; in the 1830 Federal census, they are listed in Ohio County (which, like Grayson, was formed from part of Hardin County). In 1840 they moved to Wayne County, Illinois, to stay, settling in Hickory Hill Township. Their children, as nearly as can be determined, include the following:

STOUT ATTEBERRY

1. Rebecca Ann, born October 12, 1825, Grayson County, Ky.
2. Sarah Jane, born February 11, 1827, Kentucky; married Syria Jonathan Branson.
3. Eleanor C., born 1828, Kentucky; married John ("Sumpter") Keen Sr.; died 1895, Wayne County, Illinois.
4. Nancy Lavina, born June 17, 1831, Kentucky; died February 3, 1890, Wayne County. married William Miles Branson.
5. Martha L. or Jane, born December 29, 1833, Kentucky; married in 1859, Wayne County. Ill., John Keen Jr.; died in 1916, Wayne County.
6. Elizabeth Ann, born August 8, 1834, died May 19, 1846 at 11 years and 9 months of age. Elizabeth Ann (Reed) Dickey was named for this aunt. She is buried at the Atteberry Cemetery.
7. Francis M., born about 1836, Kentucky; married (1) Emma Dewees, October 1866, and (2) Elizabeth J. Mills, 1870; a teacher and farmer.
8. Ansel Keith, born March 15, 1838 in Kentucky; married Martha E. _____; died April 30, 1902, Wayne County, Ill.; physician and teacher.
9. Phoebe A., born November 15, 1849, Ohio County, Kentucky; died May 14, 1898, Wayne County, Ill.; married (1) Samuel A. or H. Keen, August 29, 1861, Wayne County, Ill., and (2) James Crask, Wayne County.
10. Asa F., born March 29, 1844, Wayne County, Ill., married November 10, 1867, Melissa Mills; died December 20, 1911, Wayne County; farmer, and operated a general store on his farm.

Stout was a farmer. In December, 1848, the Little Flock Baptist Church was established in Hickory Hill Township. Among those persons joining were Stout and Fanny Atteberry. Melissa Dickey says the Little Flock Church had planks for seats, on blocks of wood.

The first school house in the township was built in 1845. Ansel and Asa Atteberry both taught in this first school. The building burned; and two schools were built to replace it because the enrollment was getting too large for one building. Stout Atteberry donated land in Section 28 for the Lilly School. It was a frame building 24' x 36' and cost $650 to build. At one time Fanny (Dickey) Harris was a teacher in the Lilly School.

Stout Atteberry died December 10, 1881 and was buried at the Atteberry Cemetery. (See obituary). Fanny Atteberry died May 1, 1891, 86 years old, and is also buried at the Atteberry Cemetery. One tall monument marks the graves of Stout and Fanny. The Atteberry Cemetery today is an abandoned cemetery, overgrown with tall grass, trees, wild honeysuckle, etc. There is no access road to the cemetery, although one was planned when it was first used. It is bordered on one side by Roy Reed's land, and on the other side by the land of Hilary Ellis. One property or the other has to be walked through to get to the cemetery. The stones, including those of our direct ancestors, Stout and Fanny Atteberry, and John and Rebecca Reed, are in good condition considering the overgrown state of the cemetery; but cannot remain so after a few more years of neglect.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN KEEN, JR. ^{WCP} 4-8-1909

GOLDEN WEDDING CELEBRATION.

Judge and Mrs. John Keen, Jr., Observe an Important Anniversary.

An event that does not come within the span of the average life is being observed very appropriately today and tonight, April 7th, 1909, at the home of Judge and Mrs. John Keen, Jr., in this city. It is no less an important event than the observance of their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The Judge and his estimable wife are keeping open house in an informal manner, and hundreds of their old friends and neighbors have called to congratulate them on the happy occasion of their golden wedding anniversary.

Judge Keen was born in Wayne county, Oct. 29, 1839, a son of James and Harriet Keen, in what is now Hickory Hill township. He has lived all his life here, and is known by almost every man, woman and child in the county.

Mrs. Keen, whose maiden name was Martha J. Atteberry, was a daughter of Stout and Fannie L. Atteberry. She was born in Ohio county, Ky., Dec. 29, 1832. She came with her parents to Illinois soon after her birth. They were married by Esq. J. B. Bosarth, on April 7, 1859. They have always resided in Wayne county, and the greater part of this time in Fairfield. Five children were born to them, two of whom died in infancy. Three survive—Isaac Newton Keen, of the firm of Keen-Norris Drug Company of this city; Asa F. Keen, of the Fairfield National Bank, and Mrs. Harriet L., wife of Rollo S. Clark, of Maunie, White county, Ill. There are four bright grandchildren, of whom Judge and Mrs. Keen are justly proud.

Judge Keen was elected county treasurer of this county in 1864, serving two years. In 1872 he began the study of law in the office of G. J.

county clerk, which position he filled very acceptably for seven years, resigning in 1893 to give all his time to his work as secretary of the Fairfield Building and Loan Association, a position he has held for twenty-one years. He has been the secretary of the Board of Education of Fairfield for many years. His practice at the bar has been quite extensive, all these years, particularly in probate practice. No attorney in this end of the state enjoys a greater measure of the people's confidence in probate practice than Judge Keen. His advice in such matters is often sought and can always be absolutely relied upon. He owns one of the best law libraries in this section, and always keeps abreast of the times in his profession.

As a man and citizen he has always stood high. He is a prominent member of the Presbyterian church, and is an active Sunday school worker. His services in Sunday school conventions have been called for on many occasions the past twenty-five years. Mrs. Keen is also a member of the Presbyterian church, and is much interested in all departments of its work. They have made good neighbors, and hundreds of them and old friends all over the county join us in wishing for them on this auspicious occasion, many more years of happy wedded life.

MARRIED 66 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Wright celebrated their sixty-sixth wedding anniversary Wednesday, July 27th, at their farm home seven miles southeast of Fairfield. A dinner was served at the noon hour.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright and daughter, Evelyn and Mrs. H. B. Johnson and daughter, Barbara, of Chicago; Mrs. Eugene Hannaford, of St. Prairie; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Simpson, Mrs. Fred M. Taylor and Mrs. H. C. Vanway and son, Charles, of near Fairfield. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Reed, of Galesburg, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Simpson and daughter, Roberta, of near Fairfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright were married in Fairfield, July 27th, 1883 by the late W. M. George, justice of peace and grandfather of the bride. Following the wedding they left in a two wheeled cart to visit in Geff, Rinard and Clane, and upon their return made their home at the farm where they now live.

Mr. Wright is 87 and Mrs. Wright is 84. Their youngest daughter, Mrs. Elsie Vaughan, makes her home with them.

Asa F. Atteberry, farmer and general merchant, P.O. Keenville, was born in Hickory Hill Township, this county, March 29, 1844, and is a son of Stout and Anna L. (Crask) Atteberry. The parents were both natives of Grayson County, Kentucky. The father came to this county in 1818, with his brother, Nathan F. Atteberry, and settled in Barnhill Township. He, however, only remained in the county a short time, and then returned to Kentucky. There he afterward married Miss Crask, who was of Virginia descent. Her father died in Kentucky and the mother in this county in 1855, aged eighty-nine years, two months and eighteen days. In 1840, Mr. Atteberry again came to this county, and settled in Hickory Hill Township, in Section 28. There he resided until his death, December 10, 1881. The mother is still living at a good old age, on the old home farm. Our subject was the youngest of ten children of whom the following are living: Rebecca, wife of John M. Reed; Sarah, wife of S. J. Branson; Eleanor, wife of John Keen, Sr.; Martha J., wife of John Keen, Jr.; Phebe A., wife of Samuel A. Keen; Francis M., Ansel K., and A. F., our subject. The latter's education was received in the subscription schools of this county. He remained at home until twenty-five, and then settling near his father, commenced the life of a farmer. He now owns eighty-eight acres in Section 28, of Town 1, South Range 5 East. He opened a store on his farm in August, 1882 and now supplies the neighborhood with general merchandise, carrying a stock of about $1,500. He is also serving as Postmaster. In this county, November 10, 1867, Mr. Atteberry was married to Melissa Mills, a daughter of Bradley and Rebecca (Ellis) Mills. The father was a native of Ohio, the mother of Illinois. Mrs. Atteberry was born October 25, 1849 and is the mother of six children, four of whom are now living---John F., Edgar K., Fannie L., and Nettie M. Subject has served as Township Clerk for several years, also School Director. He is a member of Hickory Hill Lodge, No. 759, A. F. & A. M. In politics, Mr. Atteberry is a strong Republican.

THEORY: Wm. R. Atteberry (s/o Asa and Sarah) and his wives

I think Wm. R. Atteberry's wives were:

1. Harriet Warren (don't know if this is a maiden or married name)
2. Daphne (Adathna) Harlan
3. Sidney J. Whittington

PLEASANT GROVE CHURCH MINUTES

pp. 11-12-13 Bro. Wm. R. and Sister Harriet Atteberry were the stars of several church meetings.

p. 11 - Mar. 1859 - Bro. Wm. R. and Sister Harriet Atteberry were separated. First, they excluded Sister Harriet, then changed their minds.

p. 12 - July 1859 - the church excluded Bro. Wm. R.

p. 12 - Aug. 1859 - Sister Harriet is in it again. This time because she was feuding with Wm. R.'s mother Sarah and sister Elizabeth. (This thing has finally made sense to me). So Sister Harriet Atteberry is excluded on p. 13 (Aug. 1859)

p. 5 - Feb. 1855 - Wm. R. Atteberry joined the church, but no Harriet. So, I started checking from the beginning for a Harriet who had joined the church under a maiden name.

p. 3 - I found Harriet Woolen, but she married James A. Atteberry, s/o Nathan.

p. 7 - May 1856 - Harriet Warren was received for watch care.

p. 8 - Nov. 1856 - Received Sister Harriet Warren by letter. (She had been a member someplace else previously.)

Remember p. 12! "want of relationship exists between Sister Harriet Atteberry or (?) Warren and Sister Sarah Atteberry and family." I read and reread this part time and again, and all I could think of was that it was garbled and that "Warren" was referring to Warren Atteberry whose wife was Elizabeth (Renfro) Atteberry. But now I feel sure that "Warren" was referring to Harriet's former name.

p. 51 - List of church members
"Harriet Warren - Excluded"

(I figure she may not have been Harriet Atteberry long enough for them to change her name on the church book. If Harriet Warren had been carried over to the church book "commencing Dec. 24, 1860", it would have blown my whole theory.)

It's not proof positive that Harriet Warren was Wm. R. Atteberry's first wife, but I am convinced. In the 1860 census, Wm. R. is back living with his mother Sarah.

DAPHNE ATTEBERRY, w/o Wm. R.

Now, as to #2 wife, Daphne, there is very little to go on. The minutes do not show when she joined the church. I believe she joined as Adathna Harlan about Dec. 1861. Her name does not appear (as far as I can tell) on the list of church members 1853-1860.

p. 44 - On the list of church members "commencing Dec. 24, 1860" she appears as - "Adathna Harlan - dismissed 1876"

I arrived at the estimate of her joining the church around Dec. 1861 by checking to see what dates the people listed before and after Adathna joined the church.

The only other mention of her is on p. 34 when she is dismissed as "Adathna Atteberry" in Mar. 1876 with the group starting the Barnhill Church. There is no mention of Cox in connection with her name, but she could have been married to a Cox before she married Wm. R. Atteberry.

In the Answer of W. R. Atteberry to the maintenance suit brought by Sidney, he states that he was a widower when he married Sidney in Aug. 1883, and that he had 6 children by his former wife. Of course, that still leaves us no place as to pinning down any possible Cox children - a child may have died or been born between the 1880 census and Aug. 1883 when he married Sidney.

The only tentative conclusion I can draw is that Harlan was Adathna's maiden name, because "William Harlan, age 21, insane" was living with W. R. Atteberry in 1870. I don't believe that Wm. R. would have tolerated Daphne bringing along an insane former brother-in-law (that is on the assumption that Harlan was a married name).

I have looked through the Harlan family, and I can't find anything about Daphne and William.

Later: Adathna - (Daphne) was the d/o Abner Harlan of Bond Co. Ill. She was a sister to David Bonham Harlan, who married Elizabeth Dorris. Elizabeth Dorris was a sister to: Martha (Dorris) Atteberry Rensfro
Malinda Jane (Dorris) Wilson
Mary Angeline (Dorris) Atteberry
Eates Singleterry
Cynthia (Dorris) Atteberry

William R. Atteberry

} Maintenance

To the Honorable Judge of the Circuit of the Second Judicial Circuit of the State of Illinois, in Chancery sitting in and for the County of Wayne

Your orator Sidney J. Atteberry would respectfully represent unto your honor that on the day of August 1883 she was lawfully married to William R. Atteberry whom she prays may be made defendant to this Bill. That she lived with said William R. Atteberry as his wife and in all respects demeaned herself toward him as a good and affectionate wife until about 3 months after said marriage ^{when} said Wm R. Atteberry without any fault or misconduct on the part of your orator abandoned and deserted her and has ever since and does now neglect and refuse to provide or contribute in any way to the support and maintenance of your orator. That said Wm R. Atteberry is father of your orator's child, now unborn, and wilfully deserted and abandoned her while ~~at that~~ ^{at that} condition That at the time of said marriage your orator had but little property

id money and that what she did have the said Wm R. Atteberry appropriated and converted to his own use and left her oratrix (with nothing for her support) after her money was gone.

That said Wm R. Atteberry has some property, consisting chiefly of the following: One black mare, one cow. One half interest in six acres of growing wheat and perhaps some other small articles, all said property being worth about two hundred dollars and that said Wm R. Atteberry is a strong able bodied man, and able to work and earn a good and sufficient living for himself and family.

Your oratrix fears that said Wm R. Atteberry will sell and dispose of said property to prevent the collection of any judgment from oratrix money obtain against him unless restrained from so doing by an order of this Court, and unless a writ of injunction issues immediately and without notice to said Wm R. Atteberry.

She therefore prays that a writ of injunction may issue restraining said Wm R. Atteberry from selling or in any way disposing of any of said property until a final hearing in this cause, and that no bond be required of your oratrix as she is unable to give the same. Your oratrix also prays that said Wm R. Atteberry be made defendant.

to this bill, that summons issue &c and that said Wm R Atterbury be required to answer all the allegations therein, (though not under oath, the oath being waived) and that upon a final hearing of this cause your Honor will order said Wm R Atterbury to pay for the support and maintenance of your oratrix such as seem in gross, or such sums at such stated times as to your Honor may seem right and just and that he pay the costs of this proceeding make a reasonable attorneys fee for your oratrix's solicitors and that such decree be made a lien upon all said defendants property and earnings and that said property be sold to satisfy said decree. And for such other and further relief &c suit was intended to be brought against him.

Defendant further answering says that owing to having his dependent children to support, and having no means to do so except by his daily labor; that if this honorable court should make a decree requiring him to pay to the complainant any sum of money, either as attorneys fees or for her support that it would be an impossibility for him to pay it. That if said complainant will deliver to him, the child with which she now claims to be pregnant when it is born, that he will take it and try to provide for as best he can.

And now having answered ^{all} that he is advised it is necessary or proper for him to make answer unto, asks to be hence discharged, with his reasonable costs, &c.

Wm. R. Atteterry
Deft.

John Keen Jr.
Atty. for Deft.

Defendant admits that he is an able bodied man, and able to work and earn wages, but alleges that he has no trade or profession, and that he can only command the wages of a farm hand, which at the best is not to exceed $20. per month, and that this amount even if he could command it the year around, would be barely sufficient to provide his dependent children with the actual necessities of life, leaving out the comforts and luxuries.

Defendant denies that he left the complainant in destitute circumstances, but alleges the fact to be, that she had when he left her a good team and wagon, household goods and other property, to the value in all of about $300. And that in addition thereto, this defendant is informed and believes that said complainant has an interest in her fathers estate amounting probably to the sum of $600. or $700. That said complainant only has two children living with her, by her first husband, and that they are entitled to a Pension from the United States, which will be sufficient for their support, until they are of sufficient age to earn their own support.

Defendant further says that he sold the mare and cow as mentioned in the complainants bill, a month or six weeks before the summons or writ of injunction was served upon him, and that he had no notice when he made such sale that any away from his home, and refused to live with ^{him} longer unless he did so; and he being a poor man and unable to pay some one to take and support them, and they being too young to earn their own support; he refused to comply with her request; and on his refusing to grant her request in this respect, she the complainant became violent and abusive toward this defendant and his children, that he was compelled to take his children and leave her.

Defendant most positively denies that he got or used any of the complainant's money or property while he lived with her, neither did he take any of her money or property away with him when he left her; but on the contrary he asserts and alleges the fact to be, that when he left her, she had all the property, that she owned at the time of his marriage with her; and that in addition to her own property, he gave her at the time he left her, his undivided one half interest in ~~one~~ ^{Eight} acres of wheat, growing on the farm of G. W. Johns, being the farm on which they resided at the time of their separation.

Defendant admits that at the time of his separation from the complainant, he owned one mare worth about $10, and one cow worth about $25.⁰⁰ but that having his dependent children to support, he was compelled to sell and dispose of said property for their support, and that he has no other property of any kind or description whatever, and has to depend entirely upon his daily labor for the support of himself and children.

Defendant further says that notwithstanding the abuse and ill-treatment received by him from the complainant; that he continued to treat her as a kind and affectionate husband should treat his wife, and that it was his desire to live with her, and to furnish her with such support as he was able; and that he did live with and provide for her until her abuse and ill-treatment became unbearable, when he reluctantly left her.

Defendant further says, that at the time he married the complainant, he was a widower, and the father of six children by his former wife, all of whom were dependant upon him for their support, the oldest of which children a girl was then about 18 years old, and the youngest about 5 years old. That soon after his marriage with the complainant she insisted on his sending away from his home his oldest daughter; and would not consent to live with him unless he did send her away; and that for the sake of peace in his family, and with the hope that by so doing he could live with the complainant, he conceded to her desire, and did send his daughter away from his home, and kept her away, while he and the complainant continued to live together. That very soon after sending his daughter away, the complainant insisted on his sending all his children

 Vs. Maintenance re.
 William R. Atteberry

The answer of William R. Atteberry the defendant to the Bill of complaint filed herein against him.

And this defendant saving and reserving to himself all and all manner of benefit or advantage that can or may be taken to the bill of complaint filed herein; for answer thereto, or to so much thereof as he is advised, it is material or necessary for him to make answer unto; answering says:

That true it is, that he was married to the complainant in the month of August 1883, and that he continued to reside with her as his wife for about the space of three months after such marriage, at which time he left her,
 and has since remained separate and apart from her; and has not contributed anything since said separation toward her support or maintenance.

But this defendant most positively denies, that said complainant demeaned herself toward him, while they continued to live together as husband and wife; as a good and affectionate wife; but that on the contrary she was ill-tempered, and abused and ill-treated
